NATIONAL RADIO WEEK

If you happened to be listening to WEAN on Friday at 3:30 you heard a most interesting interview with WEAN's station director, Donald W. Morton. Mr. Morton reminisced about the early days of radio and in doing so he recalled that he started in the business in Mattapoisett. He mentioned that Mr. Irving Vermilya, then, was broadcasting from a powerful 1500 watt transmitter located on his kitchen table with the elements open for easy access so that care had to be taken to avoid some powerful jolts from the set. The antenna ran out the window of the house to the top of the windmill located in the Vermilya yard. He said that a real estate development in Marion had built some houses and offered a few dollars to the station to broadcast perhaps one of the first commercials on the air. Mr. Vermilya, he said, is known all over the world as the #1 radio ham with his radio station.

In his talk he recalled that the early days were a very casual affair. The station would come on the air when they received a commercial to give and would cut off when they felt like taking a break. The first disc jockey was one of his co-workers who set up a gramaphone in front of the mike and played some of the current tunes of the day. He laughed as he told about a record made by a young singer that the disc jockey liked and played and asked for Mr. Morton's opinion. He said that the record and the singer would go nowhere as the singer sang off key through his nose and the song wasn't much. The record was Rudy Vallee's "Vagabond Lover". He guessed wrong many times, he said. He couldn't see how a ventriloquist would be any good on radio so didn't think that Charlie McCarthy and Edgar Bergen would go over. He didn't care much for Amos and Andy either. He remembered that when Bing Crosby was a young singer on the air for a cigar company, that the time would approach for Crosby's song and no Crosby As the program director would be wondering whether to cancel the spot, the announcer, knowing Bing, would swing right into the introduction and at the moment he finished the door would open and Crosby would saunter in, sing two songs, turn around, go out the door and disappear again. He remembered that many well known performers got their start on the Guy Lombardo show, among whom were George Burns and Gracie Allen. Mr. Morton was interviewed by the disc jockey on the WBSM station and unfortunately we never heard his last name mentioned and know him only as Bob. We will send a copy of the paper to Mr. Morton and perhaps he will send us the information. It was a most interesting broadcast and we enjoyed hearing the part about the early Mattapoisett broadcast in particular.

WEAN will celebrate its 34th anniversary next month.

STRANGE PLACES, STRANGE PEOPLE

Captain Irving Johnson of the Yankee, a former North Sea pilot boat, now converted into a brigantine rigged world cruiser, gave an illustrated lecture at the Larch Avenue auditorium of Fairhaven High School on his latest cruise. The lecture was sponsored by the Fairhaven Girl Scout Mariners.

The Yankee brought back 14 miles of magnificent color films of its adventures and this was the second showing in this area. The area covered was New Guinea to Siam.

The ship carries a crew of young college boys and girls, and seeks out corners of the world that are little known and uncharted by modern man. The films showed the Yankee adventures as it traveled to a point 2 miles above sea level on a New Guinea river. Into a land of cannibals and stone age people who have not yet discovered the principle of the wheel. The ship's crew attended a great gathering of the tribes as they mingled to do their counting and to play a favorite game. The game is played with spear and bow and arrow and the score is kept by the number of graves on each team. The mayhem was not terrific as it is all in fun but there were many wounded as the game is played for keeps.

The pictures were beautiful in color, as the natives were decked out in their most brilliant paint and wore hundreds of thousands of bird of paradise feathers. One picture showed Capt. Johnson's wife taking a land camera picture of a native chief and showing it to him. The look of discovery on his face was wonderful, as this stone age man saw his first photograph and recognized himself and others around him.

The pictures, taken in Siam, were also brilliant with color and interest. Some showed the canals literally jammed with boats where people lived all their lives without ever having to leave the water. Because the people there have food in plenty, they have lots of time and they use it to create beautiful carvings, pottery and other art objects The temples there are hand carved inch by inch and mile by mile and the carvings are coated with gold leaf inside and outside to make a sight that is almost beautiful beyond belief.

The Yankee, herself, is a seaworthy and wonderful picture, as the film shows her under sail in all weather and in many strange seas. She is used in the summer as a training ship for the girl mariners of the area, who work her sails, scrub her decks and perform all the duties of salt water sailors.

It was a great evening's entertainment and to be recommended to all when Captain Johnson shows the next leg of the Yankee's voyage on her way home. You almost feel you are a part of the crew.

HOME LAUNDRY CO.

FROM THE LOG OF THE VOYAGE OF THE CHARLESTON
BY DANIEL A. BALDWIN, THIRD MATE

December 4th. Wednesday finds the ship a lying to under a close reefed maintopsail and foresail with her larboard tacks aboard and the wind N.N.E. At 2 P.M. had a verry heavy squall from N.N.W. which lasted 2 hours and then the weather is more moderate. We this night finish trying out our whales. Our six whales will make us 400 barrels. Make sail in the morning with double reefed topsails and begin to stow down. At 8 A.M. saw a right whale near the ship. The Starboard quarter boat struck him, killed him and he sunk.

December 5th. Thursday finds us hard at work stowing down our oil. At 2 P.M. saw another right whale. Three boats lowered from the ship and pulled too far from him. Then the bow boat lowered and struck him, killed him, and cut him in in the evening. He is the least valuable of any that we have taken. Thus in one day Civil Account we stowed down a large fain of oil, killed one whale and sunk him, and killed another and cut him in. This night take in sail. This forenoon saw large numbers of finbacks and one right whale. Lowered for him. He was shy and we did not strike him. We stow our bone below this day,

December 12th. Thursday begins with fresh winds and squally and sea. See a plenty of birds about but no whale. We take in sail this night. The weather boisterous with squalls of hail. This morning we stowed down 25 barrels of oil. Unbent our foretopsail that was badly torn and bent another. The weather is verry cold. Made sail at 9

A.M. The weather more moderate.

December 15th. Sunday. This day begins with a fresh breeze from W.S.W. At 2 P.M. make the Island of St. Pauls, one of the Amsterdam Islands, bearing E.N.E. 20 miles distant. At 3 saw a right whale and lowered for him but did not get fast. He ran off to windward. This night we lie off and on St. Pauls. At 9 A.M. the boats go in shore and land. The Island of St. Pauls is about 6 miles long from North to South and three broad from East to West. It is a barren and a dreary looking place. It is of Volcanic origin and is formed of Volcanic rocks and lava covered with coarse wild grass. There is many wild hogs and goats upon it. There is a basin scooped out of the Eastern side one and a half miles in circumference. On three sides the rocks rise perpendicular 4 or 500 feet to seaward. There is a bar that protects it leaving a narrow channel deep enough for small vessels to enter and when in the harbor the wind and waves cannot effect them. There is not half an acre of tillable land on the whole island. Its shores abound with fish about the size of shad, the fattest and best fish that I ever saw. We got 4 or 500 lbs and a plenty of crawfish and a few eggs. There is several hot springs on the island, so hot that some of our crew boiled eggs in them in 8 minutes. The Island of Amsterdam is North from it, 55 miles distant. St. Pauls is owned by the French. There is about 20 inhabitants on it - 8 or 10 Frenchmen and a number of slaves, natives of the Island of Madagascar. Five or 6 of them are women that fill the double capacity of hewers of wood and drawers of water and concubines. The Governor is a man about 40 years old. His dress was a red woolen cap, red flannel shirt and coarse trousers. He seemed to

The two fourth grades, under the direction of Mrs. Mulcahy and Mrs. Ford, in connection with their studies of colonial America, enjoyed a field trip to Plymouth on Thursday. A guide, dressed as a pilgrim lady, explained to the children the architecture of early buildings, cooking utensils and equipment used, dress of the pilgrims, and many other interesting aspects of pilgrim living.

In addition, the children visited Pilgrim Rock, a reproduction of the first fort and meeting town, a 1621 town, our four fathers' monument and burial hill.

Mr. Edward Sylvia drove the children to Plymouth through Carver and returned via the Cape Cod canal.

The bottom picture shows a test run of the specially designed bass boat built for Dr. Gilbert who summers at Peases Point. Dr. Gilbert wanted a boat that could go out in weather that would drive less seaworthy boats to port and also to be fast enough to furnish some good sport. The boat is built of mahogany with an outboard motor well. She has much the same lines as a dory with all of a dory's seaworthy qualities. The boat was designed and built by Mr. Allan Vaitses. At the tiller is Steven Vaitses, David Vermilya in the center and Robert Johansen in the bow.

NOTICE TO T.V. SET OWNERS

If your T. V. set is troubled by interference from my radio station - the cure is simple.

Write a letter to the MANUFACTURER of your set and explain the trouble and they will send you a High Pass filter and have it installed without charge. It's as easy as that - They realize the shortcomings of the T. V. receiver.

My neighbor (less than 50 feet away) has installed a High Pass filter and he is absolutely free from interference.

If you want immediate relief - call Al's Radio & T.V. Service in Mattapoisett. The cost of the complete job is approximately $ 7.50.

A FRIENDLY TIP

Deliberate interference to a Government licensed Radio Station is a serious matter! The Penalty for this is $ 5,000. fine and two years in Jail. One such case has been pointed out by direction finders and reported to the United States Government. Action is pending!

HORSE SHOW ATTENDED BY 300

A horse show in Rochester on Memorial Day drew up to 300 in attendance despite the bad weather.

Maureen Caswell, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Caswell of Westport, took top Horse Show honors, competing with 28 entries from Dartmouth, Cape Cod Riders and the Dakota Mounted Patrol of New Bedford. Miss Caswell, besides being named champion of the day, had the pleasure of having her mare, Miss Prim, voted champion horse.

Miss Ingeberg Arne of Marion, on Thunder, and Miss Jean Snyder, on Flash, finished in a tie for the title of reservation champion. William Suzan of Mattapoisett won the western stock, western parade and handy horse events, and his mount, Rusty, was named reserve champion horse.

Other winners were Ingeberg Arne, Paul Bougault, Alton Soule, Ethlyn Drown, Jean Snyder, Paul Bourgault, LeRoy Perry and Mrs. Jane Pollock.

Ernie Briggs' 8 pony hitch entertained and delighted old and young as he always does.

The proceeds of the event will go to buy a resuscitator for the Rochester Fire Department.

Harry A. Brown, Jr. and D. L. Hartley managed the show; Michael Lawton of Arlington, judge and Arthur Taber was ringmaster. Also assisting were Mrs. Atley Cobb, Mrs. David Caswell, Miss Marcia Ashley, Maurice Gifford, George Leconte, Charles Tuttle, Albert Weigel, Jim Rosa, Fred Randall, David Caswell and Norman Wordell.

SOME THOUGHTS OF MINE
YOUTH
by Murray R. Tuttle

The days are short, the nights are long;
The weather's cold, the winds are strong.
Some day with snow, some with rain.
Generally speaking winter's a pain.

It hits mankind and takes no thought
Of those on earth wherein we're brought
To live and struggle with a chill
And the Doctor comes with pill and bill.

The one to take to make us well,
The other makes us ring the bell;
And then the pill goes sliding down
And we pay the other with a frown.

But boys and girls skate on the ice
And laugh and play; oboy, it's nice
To skate and slide with a pretty girl,
Keeps a feller's head in a steady whirl.

And when we get a little older
And suddenly get a heap more bolder,
We skate through life in the same old way
That Mother and Dad did in their day.

Youth is wonderful for boys and girls
Though their lives are full of joy and sorrow.
There's always years in which to learn
As they go from today into tomorrow.

ROCHESTER P.T.A ELECTS OFFICERS
MRS. GEORGE M. DAVIS ELECTED PRESIDENT

The Rochester Parent-Teacher Association held its annual meeting and buffet supper at the Rochester Consolidated School with about 45 members and guests present. The tables were attractively decorated with spring flowers and white tapers.

Special guests were Mrs. Clifford Peirce, Mr. and Mrs. James Hartley, Mr. George R. Austin, superintendent of schools, Mrs. Thomas Oldfield, art supervisor, Mr. Douglas Church and Mr. Ernest Sherman and their wives.

Each of the incoming officers received a corsage. Mrs. Walter Pierce, retiring president, received a gift of jewelry and a corsage. She has served the P.T.A as president for three years.

Mr. Warren Arnold, district director, and guest speaker, installed the officers. New officers are Mrs. George M. Davis, president; Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain, first vice-president; Mrs. Isaac Arenberg, second vice-president; Mrs. Henry B. Smith, recording secretary; Mrs. Warren Doane, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Logan Doane, treasurer. Mrs. Arthur L. Kenney was chairman of the nominating committee.

Announcement was made that Mrs. Baker's first grade and Mr. Hanna's seventh grade had won the room contest. These rooms were represented by the largest number of parents at P.T.A. meetings during the past year. The teachers of these rooms will be consulted and a treat planned. Members who volunteered to serve on this committee were Mrs. Ernest Sherman, Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain, Mrs. Logan Doane, Mrs. Peter Balzarini, Mrs. Henry Smith and Mrs.

The P.T.A. contributed to the Weber-Fiske Scholarship Fund, sent food baskets to the needy at Christmas, paid for Cub Scout dinners at the annual Boy Scout banquet at the Woman's Club and contributed to Founders Day.

The project for the year was to purchase a large freezer for the cafeteria which the P.T.A. was able to pay for completely. The ways and means committee raised money for this piece of equipment by various fund-raising events which included food sales in the fall, sale of sweat shirts, a dance at the school in February at which the local Woodchoppers orchestra donated its services, and a food sale in the spring.

Excellent programs were provided during the year by Albert O. Dusseault, chairman of the program.

Mrs. Pierce introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Warren Arnold, district director. Mr. Arnold told of the wide scope of P.T.A.s and explained the work of the state and national boards with regard to the welfare of children and youth everywhere. He urged that each member endeavor to attend the state and district conferences whenever possible as these are the means by which P.T.A. trains leaders.

Committee chairmen, chosen by the president, are Mrs. Arthur Kenney, Mrs. Walter Pierce and Mrs. Peter Balzarini, ways and means; Mrs. Charles Tuttle, and Mrs. Louis Ouellette, refreshments; Mrs. Ernest Sherman and Earl Hanna, program; Mrs. Ralph Walker, publicity; Mrs. William Mustagangus, membership; Mrs. Jesse Metcalf, historian.

RUBBISH COLLECTION - MATTAPOISETT
Your cooperation is requested by Abel Grace! The growth of the town plus the summer collection at the beaches presents a big job. Of necessity it will be likely that collection will start at 6 A.M. as permitted by contract. Mr. Grace suggests that containers to be emptied be placed at the curb the night before your regular collection day. He also wishes particularly to advise that Peases Point residents conform with all other sections by placing rubbish at the curb, as it will no longer be possible to enter yards to pick it up.

ROCHESTER P.T.A. HONORS TWO MEMBERS

The Rochester P.T.A. paid tribute to two of its members, Mrs. Marion Peirce, former school committee member, and Mrs. Marion Hartley, retired school teacher, at their annual meeting and supper.

Mr. George R. Austin, superintendent of schools, presented each with a gift and an orchid corsage. He spoke of their many years of service to the community.

Mrs. Peirce served for twenty-two years as a member of the school committee, retiring in 1956. She has worked untiringly on many projects concerning the welfare of children in the town in her capacity as chool committee member and otherwise. She has two grown children who attended Rochester Schools.

Mrs. Hartley, who retired from teaching in June, 1955, taught in Rochester schools for twenty-two years as a full-time teacher and twenty-two years as a substitute teacher. Before the new school was built, Mrs. Hartley often had several grades in one room. She taught in both Waterman and Peirceville schools and her last year in the new school. Mrs. Hartley also has two grown children who attended Rochester schools and has six grandchildren, four of them living in Rochester.

Both women are P.T.A. members of long standing. They have given generously of their time on many, many occasions in P.T.A. and other community affairs.

MATTAPOISETT SOFTBALL TEAM IS VICTORIOUS

Mattapoisett Center School's softball team this year has had a glorious season with 3 wins and 1 loss. The first game was played on the home field with Friends Academy who won by a score of 7 to 3. The next game was played with Marion which Mattapoisett won 20 to 9, thanks to the excellent batting of Judy Hardy and Joyce Green, and the fielding of Jeanette and Janice Washburn, Nancy Walker, Kathy Heuberger, Judy Stonehill, Joyce Bowman and Alberta Norlander, members of the team. Wareham was their next victim winning over them by 15 to 11. The final game was played at Marion and was the most exciting one of all. The score wavered back and forth, but in the final inning Mattapoisett slid into a 17 to 15 victory.

As the season draws to a close the Center School is thankful for a fine team of girls who showed excellent sportsmanship and played a nice, clean game. Ralph C. Glidden was the coach.

FROM THE LOG OF BOAT CHARLESTON ON VOYAGE FROM JUNE 26, 1844 to March 9, 1847 FROM NEW LONDON, CONN. BY DANIEL A BALDWIN.

The Governor is a man about 40 years old. His dress was a red woolen cap, red flannel shirt and coarse trousers. He seemed to feel verry much as if I am Monarch of All I Survey. He had a verry smug cottage built of dirt and stones covered with coarse grass. There was two rooms, one was his Hall of Audience. The size of it was 8 feet by 10. The furniture consisted of a single bed for one person, the linen of which was verry dirty. It was overshadowed with curtains of dirty white cotton cloth trimmed verry thick with bows of pink ribbon. It had one small window which served the purpose of a bank and a receptacle of nautical instruments and to admit light. He had a book to register the names of all ships that touch there. It was ornamented with several pictures. The most striking of them was a naked Venus just arisen from the sea. The other room served as a dining hall and dormitory for his highnesses table waiting woman. They take many fish, cure them, and send them to the Isle of Bourbon. I left a letter for my wife to go home via Isle of France. There is a small schooner that belongs here. She is 40 or 50 tons burthen. I saw here two graves with monumental inscriptions. One read To the Memory of Mr. Charles Mallory, first officer of Ship AERONAUT of New London, who was killed by a whale near this place, 21 years, in 1837. The other was to the Memory of Pardon

Howland who fell from masthead of Ship MIDIAS of New Bedford in 1842, aged 13 years. The seabird from his erye in the rocks screams forth a sad requiem over their lonely resting place.

December 16th, Monday. The boats come on board and at three o'clock the ship goes to sea with a fair wind. Course S.E. The Ship AVERICK of New Bedford and the French ship CACHELOT of Havre were in at the Island. At 4 P.M. passed a French ship painted green with two or three white stripes about her waist. We carry sail this night. In the morning we spoke the Ship THO'S DICKINSON of Sag Harbor with three whale.

December 17th. Tuesday begins with a fresh breeze from the West. We fall in with the Ship BENGAL of New London, Capt. Frink, with 5 whale. We hear from several New London ships. Capt. Frink comes on board of us. His mate, Mr. James, is sick, His lungs are affected. Our doctor went on board to see him. We again fall in with the THOMAS DICKINSON and all three ships have a gam. This night the wind increases to a gale from the West. We reduce the sail on the ship down to double reefed fore and main topsails. The Ship runs East before the wind and sea like a frightened Deer before the hunters. This forenoon we clean ship with lye and cinders.

December 19th. Thursday begins with a continued gale and the wind S.W. This afternoon it abates some. At 7 P.M. we set the fore topsail, double reefed. Set the foresail and fore topmast stay sail and keep the Ship off S.E. The win S. W. This night the weather squally which continues through this day.

I landed on the small rocky Island of St. Pauls December 16th, 1844. There in a lonely spot overshadowed by the dark frowning Cliffs. I saw two graves with the following monumental inscriptions:

Sacred to the Memory of Mr. Charles Mallory, first Officer of the Ship AERONAUT of New London, who was killed by a Whale near this place, aged 21 years, 1837.

Again I read Sacred to the Memory of Pardon Howland who fell from the mast head of Ship MIDIAS of New Bedford and was killed, aged 13 years, 1842.

Near by the dark waves of Indian Ocean sound a melancholy requiem oer their neglected and solitary graves. The sad reflection that hopes so young and bright must be buried in this Desolate Isle far from their friends and homes suggested the following lines:

While wandering in the Indian seas
I saw a rock bound Isle
Where solitude and silence dwell
With sadness in their smile.

There 'neath the dark and frowning Cliffs
That overhang the waves
There is a lonely spot I saw
Two solitary Graves.

Two young men were a sleeping there
Far from their friends and Home
To hunt the Monarch of the Deep
They to those seas did come.

They left upon their Native Shores
Kind friends that held them dear.
Alas they will return no more
But sleep unnoticed here.

The seabird in his Eyre near Screams sadly oer their Graves,
The tempest in its wild Career
Howls loud with foaming waves.

Ye southern Gales that pass them by
As Oer the deep you roam
Go haste ye on and tarry not Until you reach their homes.

There's friends who mourn their absence now
Likewise their fate deplore,

Go tell them of their resting place
Upon this dreary shore.

Go Whalemen, view the lonely spot
Where they are laid to rest
Don't pass them by as if forgot
When you come from the far off West.

When you return to their native shore
Beyond the dark blue waves,
Say you have landed on that Isle
And stood beside their Graves.

Ship CHARLESTON Indian Ocean Dec. 20, 1844

December 20th. Friday begins with a fresh breeze and squally from the South West and disagreeable weather. The wind hauls around N.W. this night and blows a gale with squalls of rain. Heave the ship to at 1 o'clock at night under a close reefed maintopsail. At 8 A.M. more moderate. Make sail again. Squally disagreeable weather the rest of this day. The weather is cold enough for ice to be in our vicinity. We have not had one pleasant day in all December.

December 25th. Wednesday begins as usual with a gale of wind and a heavy sea. Today is Christmas and a joyless holly day is this to me. No whale is sight. We take in sail this night. In the morning make sail and steer S.E. by E. The wind is S.W. and more moderate. There is a heavy sea on this day. Spoke the ship LIVERPOOL of New Bedford, 5 mos. out with 9 whale. Capt. Devoll is Master. She was steering East.

December 31st. Tuesday finds the ship scudding before the wind and sea at a rapid rate. Course E.S.E. The weather is squally.

Our ship is a noble sea boat. This day killed a pig for New Years. He weighed 65¼ lbs. We carry sail this night and she veers round W.N.W. and the Gale continues. The ship runs off before the wind and sea E.S.E. The weather has been so bad for several days that we have to keep our boats hoisted up to keep the sea from washing them away. This day the old Cook and Walker, a Scotchman, have a square fight in consequence of which Walker scours out a try pot in his watch below.

ON THE COVER

The spotlights are on New Bedford this week as the world premiere of Moby Dick takes place. On the cover is the New Bedford waterfront as Melville must have seen it. The figurehead in the foreground is on the famous New Bedford whaling ship Alice Knowles which was built in Weymouth in 1879.

Along with many other residents we are taking next week for our vacation. We hope to have pleasant weather over the July 4th holiday for everyone off for the holiday or on vacation. We hope to see you in Marion on the 4th of July as they take over the celebration of Independence Day for all of our towns. It is a full day of entertainment that our Marion friends have planned for us starting with the parade at 9:45 A.M. We know, from past years, that you will enjoy all of the events of the Marion Horse Show and that they have many wonderful prizes to distribute every hour. It's all for the benefit of the Marion scouts. Have a good day and a good week. We will be back in your mailbox on July 12th.

FAMILY PICNIC PLANNED

There will be a church all-family picnic Sunday, July 1st, on the lawn of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church from 4 until 7 P.M. Each family is to bring their supper or sandwiches. Beverage and watermelon will be served. It is also suggested that each family bring a blanket to sit on. The Junior High and the Senior High Youth Fellowships will be in charge of recreation. In case of rain it will be held in the vestry.

HISTORIC MATTAPOISETT CHURCH TO REOPEN PERMANENTLY

The Christian Church on the corner of Church and Baptist Streets, Mattapoisett will reopen on Sunday, July 1st. The Reverend Clarence Allwine of Cleveland, Ohio will be the pastor. Rev. and Mrs. Allwine are now residing in Mattapoisett, and they cordially invite all to attend services. The morning worship will be at 11 A.M., and Sunday School will be held from 10 to 10:45 A.M. Rev. Allwine hopes to add an evening service later in the season. The church has been newly painted on the interior. It is a fine thing to see this beautiful old church open its doors on a permanent basis with a young pastor, and we know that all Mattapoisett will wish him success.

ANNUAL SUMMER FAIR AT MARION CHURCH

The First Congregational Church of Marion will hold its annual summer fair July 14th from 11 A.M. to 5 P.M., and this year promises to be bigger and better than ever before. Home cooked foods and candies made by the best cooks in Marion will be on sale, as long as they last. Handmade articles of clothing, made through the year by the Sewing Society, will be on sale for the discriminating gift shoppers. Tea will be served in the church vestry during the afternoon.

In the vacant lot behind the church, the younger set will be catered to with games of fun and skill, with fitting prizes for all winners. New and exciting rides are being planned. Refreshments will also be available.

Mark this date on your calendar and come as a family to enjoy an afternoon of wholesome fun and refreshments.

GRADUATION EXERCISES HELD AT MATTAPOISETT CENTER SCHOOL

A graduation class of 39, including 13 honor students, was graduated last Wednesday night from the Mattapoisett Junior High School. The exercises were simple and very well executed. Particularly nice for the interested audience was the processional when each graduate entered individually and took his or her place on the stage, so that it was possible to see each graduating student very clearly. The orchestra and the class singing were thoroughly enjoyable.

Mr. Edward Sylvia presented the Lions Club awards to Nathan Heuberger, Linda Knight and Allan Taylor, Nathan, who was graduated from Fairhaven High School in June, will enter the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis

The Scholarship Cup was presented to Gale Foster by Flavel M. Gifford, superintendent of schools. Her name will be engraved on the cup under the names of the previous winners. She will retain it until next June when it will then be presented to the 1957 winner.

Mrs. Albert D. Furnans, chairman of the Scholarship Committee of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club, presented scholarship awards to Gale Foster, first honors; Thomas M. Renahan, Jr., second and W. Scott Phillips, third.

Citizenship Medals were presented to Linda Knight and Allan Taylor by John N. DeCosta,

MATTAPOISETT LOSES TWO FINE CITIZENS

Recently our town noted the passing of two residents whose loss will be felt deeply by all.

Mrs. Dennis Mahoney of Pearl Street was a fine senior citizen of this town who always had a wonderful smile and a twinkle in her eye, and she will be missed by her many friends and acquaintances. Almost everyone, young or old, will recall personally rewarding social and business contacts with Mrs. Mahoney, and the town is richer for her living here.

Mr. Bill Raymond of Crescent Beach, Mattapoisett will always be Mr. Crescent Beach to people who knew him and that takes in everyone of all ages. We remember him quick of action and speech, running errands, doing favors and being a good friend to all. Always young in heart, he was the first to rebuild after every hurricane and was an inspiration and example to summer residents of Crescent Beach. He will be remembered as long as there is a Crescent Beach.

HORNBLOWERS TO PRESENT COMEDY "MY THREE ANGELS"

The Hornblowers of St. Gabriel's Episcopal Church in Marion will again present its highly successful production of the 1953 Broadway hit comedy "My Three Angels" Friday and Saturday nights, July 6 and 7, at Veterans Hall in Marion.

The cast has been rehearsing with the Rev. John J. Albert, rector, who also directed the two previous offerings of the group, "Arsenic and Old Lace" and "You Can't Take It With You".

The scene for this delightful suspense comedy in three acts is set in French Guiana in the year 1910. The events revolve around an "amiable and impractical" shopkeeper named Felix Ducotel played by Jack Somers; his "loving" wife Emilie, Mrs. Peter Freedman; and their charming daughter Marie Louise, portrayed by Susan Roche. Three highly questionable characters named Joseph, Jules and Alfred, played respectively by Hilliard Lubin, Richard Peters and Edwin Babbitt, Jr., decide fate needs a helping hand. With the aid of their protege Adolph, a truly sinister fellow, they swiftly dispose of a couple of major problems. Mrs. George L. Nowell, as Madame Parole, lends a note of feminine intrigue to the story. The arrival of mercenary Uncle Henri and his spineless nephew Paul, characterized by Donald Durfee and Frantz Warner, on Christmas Eve only adds to the woes of the entire household. It is at this point the "Three Angels" put their diversified talents to work. The fast moving action is climaxed by a surprise caller, Winthrop Baylies, on Christmas morning. Summed up it is a pro-

MOBY DICK PREMIERE

"Moby Dick", which has been playing in New Bedford after an enthusiastic premiere is an adventure story that will surely become a film classic. The new color process, that superimposes a black and white film over the color film, introduces an entirely new dimension to movie color. The effect is that of fine old paintings that are living on the screen. The seascapes are magnificent bringing out the grandeur and power of the sea contrasted with the small whaler and the men who man her. The scenes of action on the water, as the men harpoon their whales, are so real that the audience actually is there. This new color or chroma lends a brooding quality to the story that goes so well with the mounting tragedy of the story.

"Moby Dick" is recognized as a literary classic. The story is terribly difficult reading, however, so that few have ever waded completely through the novel. "Moby Dick" on the screen, while retaining all the force and beauty of the story, has given it a clarity and simplicity that makes it superb entertainment. New color never before seen on a screen marks a milestone in motion picture photography. The story of Moby Dick is ageless and this picture may well be enjoyed by

POEM

The following poem was sent to us by one of our readers who wishes to remain anonymous.

The jagged stabs of backache!
The Pitch fork prongs of pain!
It's agony to lie in bed
And worse to rise again.

Each morning I come down the stairs
Masking my depression.
The sun is out, our children gay.
"Ouch, watch that expression!"

To see a mother hide her pain
Must be a sorry sight
But summers at the sea shore
Make rheumatiz my plight.

I thought my clever acting
Hadn't been so bad
Until my darling husband said
"Mother. why so sad?"

GRANGE IN ROCHESTER MEETS

Rochester Grange held its regular meeting on Wednesday night, June 27th. They voted to let the extension service have the use of the hall on July 8th and July 15th for the classes on caning chairs. It was also voted to send Mrs. Lois Taylor, lecturer, and Mr. Harold Taylor to the Lecturer's Conference to be held in August in Vermont.

Mrs. Clifton Hedges contributed to the birthday bank. A letter of thanks was received from Mrs. Gertrude Jefferson for flowers sent to her during her recent illness.

Oscar Norton thanked the Grange on behalf of his wife and self, and also the Rochester people for helping at the reception held for their daughter and her husband in the Grange Hall June 23rd.

The grange thanked the 4H Town Committee, Mrs. Clifton Hedges, for the curtains which she made and put up in the grange dining room.

ROCHESTER CIVIL DEFENSE DIRECTOR
REPORTS PROGRESS

The Rochester Civil Defense program has made good progress since its formation on April 11, 1955, Mr. Hoyle Demoranville, CD Director, reports. CD in Rochester now has its headquarters in an office on the second floor of the Rochester Town Hall and is open to anyone desiring information on Monday evenings from seven to nine P.M. Mr. Elmer Lawrence is assistant to the director.

Mr. Demoranville says that there has been a good response from the townspeople to fill the various offices. However, there is still a lack in some departments, particularly Ground Observer Corps. It is hoped that through the cooperation of various organizations and individuals that this lack may be remedied. Recently, the Rochester Brotherhood volunteered and served a week putting in time on GOC to help out. Mr. Demoranville is supervisor and Calvin Daggett and Warren Doane, Sr. are assistant chiefs of GOC. Mrs. Evelyn Demoranville and Mrs. Carol Lawrence are instructors in this service, and a training class of two hours is held in the vestry when a large enough group is interested. The observation station is located on Vaughan Hill Road. To date, young people from the seventh grade in school on have been trained and have served many hours. It is a much needed service and something into which youngsters can channel some of their energy during their

EVER SEEN A LOBSTER THREE WEEKS OLD?

MacLeans in Fairhaven send the eggs of deep sea lobsters that they receive to the Martha's Vineyard hatchery where they are raised and released in local waters. It is interesting to know that 25,000 were released off of West Island Thursday, June 28th. More interesting is a display of the babies in a jar on the counter at MacLean's, Union Wharf in Fairhaven.

tions. Mr. Cummins operates a portable 2-way radio owned by CD which can be used in a car or stationary location where AC current is available. The network name is RACES which is a national network. It is controlled by FCC licensed hams and in case of an emergency of any type it is the only type of radio communication that will be authorized, other than RACES programs. This station ties into the New Bedford station on two meters and sector headquarters at Sassaquin. There will be a regular network tie-in with Sassaquin on a regular network schedule which when fully set up fans out all over the state. Radio communication will be used when and if telephone communication is out. An ideal set-up for the town, says Mr. Cummins, would be to get another one of the portable sets, so that one could rove in a car and the other would be at CD Headquarters. That would cover the town very effectively. To complete the picture, a monitor set could be constantly tuned in to the Sassaquin frequency, and by this system would have complete coverage whereever you would want.

The job of Warden is handled by Miss Barbara King. Her administrative duties are the taking of block or road census, keeping log books, special records and ward unit equipment, etc.

Mr. Russell Lawrence is head of Evacuation Service. Rochester is one of the reception centers for the Boston area and must be prepared to take care of 3,280 evacuees in public buildings and private homes.

Halo (Sun Dogs): By halo we mean the large circles, or part of circles, about the sun or moon. A halo occurring after fine weather indicates a storm.

Corona: By this term we mean the small colored circles frequently seen around the sun or moon. A corona growing smaller indicates rain; growing larger, fair weather.

Rainbows: A morning rainbow is regarded as a sign of rain; an evening rainbow of fair weather.

"MY THREE ANGELS" WELL PRESENTED IN MARION

Those who were fortunate to view last week's repeat performances of "My Three Angels" were highly entertained by this hilarious comedy with its amusing and well paced lines done by a superb cast. The play was presented by the Hornblowers of St. Gabriel's Church, and was a repeat from last Spring's performance.

A talented cast showed excellent coaching from the director, the Rev. John J. Albert, who deserves much credit for his production.

Included in the cast were Hilliard Lubin as one of the three angels, Richard G. Peters as the wife strangler, Edwin V. Babbitt as the third angel, John Somers as Felix Ducotel, Elinore Freedman as Emilie Ducotel, wife of Felix; Susan Roche as Marie Louise Ducotel, their daughter; Donal K. Durfee as Henri Trochard, Alys Nowell as Madame Parole, Frantz Warner as Paul, the nephew, and Winthrop Baylies as the lieutenant.

A thatched roof cottage, designed and built under the direction of the stage manager, Richard W. Angle, was a clever and authentic stage setting.

FROM THE LOG OF THE WHALESHIP CHARLESTON BY DANIEL A. BALDWIN ON THE VOYAGE FROM JUNE 26, 1844 to MARCH 9, 1847

January 1st, 1845, New Years Day. Wednesday begins and finds us eating a New Year's Dinner of fresh pig cooked into a pie and baked together with apple pie, apple sauce, etc. Another year has gone the way of centuries and never will return. If any one had told me one year ago that today I should be off the Coast of New Holland I should have said impossible. Now I hope one year from today to be verry near my home. At 9 o'clock this night the Comet bears W. by S. This day repair foretopsail. Wind and sea as usual.

January 3rd. Friday begins with pleasanter weather. Finbacks continue in sight. This night it blows a gale from the West and rough weather again. Finbacks in sight. We this day finish the foretopsail and begin again on the maintopsail.

January 12th. Sunday is the only pleasant day we have had in six weeks. The Comet this night at 10 o'clock bore S.W. by S. This day we take a porpoise. He will weigh more than 200 lbs. He is most beautiful in colour, being black with bright white spots. The sea becomes smoother and the weather misty and rainy the rest of this day. No observation.

January 13th. Monday begins with rainy thick weather with light airs from N.N.E. We this day pass the confines of the Indian Ocean and enter on the blue bosom of the Pacific. It is now in a tranquil slumber and looks as if he never shakes his main in his anger and sends forth his white foaming Coursers to toss the poor Mariner about between the Heavens and Earth. This night it blows a gale from the North with thick rainy weather and continues so the rest of this day.

January 21st. Tuesday begins with beautiful weather. Wind S.W. Course North. At daylight this morning our eyes were gladdened by the sight of a sail. At six o'clock we spoke her. It proved to be the ELIZABETH of New Bedford, 5 months out with two whales. At 8 A.M. we saw the broken outline of the South West Coast of New Zealand 45 miles distant. It appears to be verry broken and irregular. It looks like a long line of hummocks. Moderate the rest of this day.

January 22nd. Wednesday begins moderate weather with wind to the southward. This day Capt. Chester and myself pledge ourselves in writing to abstain from smoking or taking snuff during the rest of this voyage under a penalty of ten dollars. This morning saw a large ship with painted ports cutting in a whale 15 miles from the land. At 10 A.M. saw a right whale and chased him. He was going too fast for us. Several finbacks in sight.

January 23rd. Thursday begins with pleasant weather and wind to the southward and eastward. There is now two ships in sight. We are between Cape Saunders and Banks Island. The Coast seems broken into irregular hills and vallies. It is not mountainous. Some part of it looks smooth and low and seems to be a beautiful Champaign Country. Last night from 4 P.M. till dark there was a dense black smoke kept up from two hills - whether to attract our attention or to propitiate some sylvan deity I could not tell. Wind and current ahead the rest of this day.

January 27th. Monday begins with beautiful summer weather. This afternoon we are off a part of the coast of New Zealand that is verry beautiful. There is a belt of verry level country of 50 or 60 miles bordered by a chain of lofty mountains covered with eternal snow. Tis a most beautiful scene. At daylight we found ourselves near an Inaccessable part of the Coast that rises 12 or 1500 feet above the level of the sea. All at once we came upon an opening $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile wide in the side of these rocks, so steep and tall they seemed like the frowning portal that led to some fairy land. We entered and sailed up a beautiful Bay which grew gradually wider till it reached two or three miles wide and 10 or 12 long, secure from all winds, surrounded by high land. We anchored in Akaroa at 10 this day.

January 28th, Tuesday. This day we take ashore cask and fill with water at a small hamlet of the natives. Here were six runaway sailors. This afternoon the French ship Manche of Havre came in. We found in the Bay the China of New Bedford, the Chelsea of New London. The ships have spent one season on the North West Coast, and the Bengal of New London. This night another French ship anchored in the Bay. We get off our water and unship the rudder, and the larboard watch go on shore this day.

January 29th. Wednesday. The Liberty men come onboard, some with black eyes and some drunk. The Starboard watch go on shore this day. William Fielding, an Indian, gets drunk, denys duty and leaves the ship. Cyrus Follet gets on shore and runs away. Oliver, a black boatsteerer, refused to come on board. The cook and two foremast hands dont come on board this night. Mr. Lyons and I go into the forest a shooting this day. Saw pigeons. The other birds were strangers to me. The land here is exceedingly fertile.

January 30th, Thursday. This night we stand watch with arms in our hands, expecting a visit from the shore pirates. We have now a blacksmith from the shore at work upon our rudder and we are preparing our ship for sea as soon as possible. We have a rainy South Easter the latter part of this day.

January 31st. Friday weather clears up. We continue to repair our rudder. This night the pirates attempt to board us and we keep them off by placing the fear of our loaded guns before their eyes. This day I go up to the head of the Bay with Capt. Chester to buy potatoes of a French farmer with a house not as good as a New England hogpen. We saw the stronghold where the bones of hundreds of the natives around this Bay lie bleaching, slain by the Great Chief of Cloudy Bay 5 or 6 years ago. He has killed off this Region's inhabitants twice. Their tribute to him was a young child evry year that he ate.

February 1st, 1845. Saturday we continue to repair our rudder. Our runaways all return this day in a sulky, surly mood. We have a set of boatsteerers mostly black that do what seemeth good in their own eyes. The more trouble they make the more they are allowed to have their own way by the Captain and first Mate. Impudence is at a premium onboard this ship.

February 2nd, Sunday. We this day finish our rudder and hang it. I send a double letter to my wife by the CHINA of New Bedford. The native village this day is very quiet. They appear to have a greater veneration for the Sabbath than the whites have of this region, and I surely believe their morals are more pure. Their women are surely more to be respected than the white woman.

February 3rd and 4th. Monday and Tuesday we go the head of the Bay after potatoes that we get of two Frenchmen that live like hermits. We only get one half that he agreed to let us have. Near by under a hut no better than a coal pit hut lives an Englishman and a woman that he called his wife. We are favored with the company of Mr. Turner and his lady in the evening. They are of the aristocrasy here.

February 5th. Wednesday we have plenty of wind and rain. This evening we are visited by the only unmarried white woman on this Bay accompanied by three gentlemen. They sang songs three hours. This day an English schooner of 25 or thirty tons came in. She is owned by an American by the name of Charles Brown. He ran away from the ROSALIE, whaler of Warren, 7 years ago. He went into the fishing here, gathered some money together, built a small schooner, married an English woman, and in company with her brother goes a trading round New Zealand. Capt. Chester sold them the ship's yawl. We have now 4 goats and a dog and 2 tons and $\frac{1}{4}$th of potatoes and are waiting a wind to go to sea.

February 6th. Thursday we go on shore for milk but get none. Mr. Lyons goes a hunting 2 days. Kills some pigeons which are twice as large as our pigeons at home. He likewise killed a parrot. Two boats get off some water and George Davis, a native of New London, ran away.

February 7th. Friday I go on shore with the carpenter and cut a tree of Gohi 14 inches through for a gangway rail. There is some of the most beautiful wood here for cabinet work that there is in any country. There is in the forests of Zealand more than 365 different kinds of wood, and the forests wear their green livery the year round. This morning the wind is fair. I go to Town to seek for Davis. He refuses to come onboard. I bot some milk of a Scotch farmer at $12\frac{1}{2}$ cents per quart. His farm house would vie in elegance with a New England coal pit hut. As I landed Capt. Potter of the CHINA had just bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Turner, Mr. Crawford and Mrs. Elizabeth Pilchard. As Mrs. Turner took a last long lingering look of the accomplished Captain the tears ran down her cheeks as if he carried her heart with him. We got under way in company with the CHINA of New Bedford and got to sea by 9 o'clock. Wind N. We saw outside the Heads a large French sloop of War bound in. Wind blows fresh. Double reefe the topsails.

SWORDFISHERMEN LAND 465 POUNDER

A large crowd was on hand at the Mattapoisett Wharf last Wednesday evening to greet Dean Doran, Dr. Stanley Mysliwy and Alfred Boudreau as they brought in a swordfish that took up almost the length of the cockpit of the Sultana. Caught 30 miles south of Nomansland the giant fish gave a struggle all the way. In particular it presented a problem when they tried to take it aboard. The fish was hung at the wharf for the crowd to see, and then was taken to Fairhaven where it was purchased by MacLeans on Union Wharf.

FROM THE LOG OF THE WHALESHIP CHARLESTON BY DANIEL A. BALDWIN ON THE VOYAGE FROM JUNE 28, 1844 to MARCH 9, 1847

February 7th.

The Islands called New Zealand are two in number extending from North to South several hundred miles. There is a range of mountains in the Center of the Islands running the whole length covered with Eternal snow. There is a Lake in the southern Island that is 50 miles long and 30 wide. The face of the Country is diversified into hills and Vallies with occasional tracts of level land. The soil is dark brown loam and exceedingly fertile, producing with little labor all the productions of the middle and Northern States of the American Union. I saw there French turnips, cabbage, potatoes and flax growing wild. The winters here are verry mild. There is snow only on the high lands. The forests and savannahs are green the year round and cattle get their own living at all times. In the coldest weather in the winter the ice is the thickness of window glass. There is a plant that I never saw in any other place a growing here. The leaf resembles the blue flag, only it does not grow so high and the leaf is not as broad as the flag. The native women have a way of dressing it into a most Beautiful kind of white flax that shines like silk and is much stronger than American hemp or flax. Akaroa Bay where we lay is one of the finest harbors in the world. It is 12 miles long and 4 wide in the widest part. The entrance is so narrow with a strong current sweeping continually by the heads at the entrance that it is not safe going in without a fair wind. There is no obstructions to be feared in going up to the anchorage. We ran up 4 miles and anchored off the native village in 7 fathoms water. Clay bottom. A ship may safely anchor with in one fourth of a mile of the native town where there is the purest and best of water and easily got off to the ship. The French ships generally anchor off the so called Town of Akaroa two miles farther up where the white inhabitants live. Akaroa Bay is an indenture in the south side of Banks Peninsula and it is indeed a romantic spot surrounded by lofty hills that rise in irregular shapes 12 or 1500 feet above the level of the sea, their sides covered with forests of dark green foliage entwined with a vine that knits the trees together so that it is almost impossible to walk aside from the path.

Were all the time singing from thicket and tree
Sweet notes and sweet songs that were strangers to me.

The parrot and pigeon of all the birds were the only ones of my acquaintance. In the evening when the winds were hushed and our Ship rode at anchor on the glassy surface of the Bay there generally came a light breath of air from the shore, so softly and so sweet from the flowering thicket, that I thought it wafted from fairy land. The shores of this Bay is thinly peopled with native inhabitants. They were most all massacred 7 years ago by Robolen, a celebrated Chief that lives at Cloudy Bay in Cook's Straits. Ten years ago he was the terror of one half New Zealand and could boast of subjects by the thousands. He is alive now and people that know him tell me that he is 70 years of age. His hair is white, his face all tattoed up, dark piercing eyes, and dreadful must he appear in his rage to the enemy in his power.

GIRL SCOUT SENIOR ROUNDUP

Recently three Mattapoisett girl scouts, Susan Pelson, Susan Erhard and Susan Rowland, went to the Senior Roundup at Pontiac, Michigan. There, they met and exchanged ideas, and souvenirs with girls scouts from all over this country and many U. S. Territories. We asked Miss Susan Pelson to write her impression of the trip. We thank her for the following account.

Several weeks ago I returned from one of my most thrilling experiences, the 1956 Girl Scout Senior Roundup.

Eight girls from the New Bedford Girl Scout Council attended. Three of them were from Mattapoisett.

We lived in complete primitive camping for twelve days and had the time of our lives.

We tried to meet all 6,000 girls, especially the girls from the United States Territories and the thirty-two international scouts. We sure tried but of course we couldn't.

Among the highlights were the four arena events, the official opening and campfire, the Americana Event, the Fourth of July celebration and the Girl Scout Story on the last night. We really had a marvelous time, all 6,000 of us.

Also, among the things I enjoyed were the tour of Greenfield Village, the tour of the Ford Roundra, of the Rouge River Ford Plant, and of the Henry Ford Museum.

On the way home we stopped at Niagara Falls and spent some time viewing them from both sides of the border. Truly an experience to remember.

I wish to thank all those who made it possible for us to go.

RESCUE AT SEA

Out of tragedy and death and blunder comes one fine thing. The rescue efforts of the Coast Guard, the Ile de Frande and the many other ships that sped to the scene of the collision resulted in one of the greatest life saving operations of all time. In the confusion and the shock of the crash the passengers of the Andrea Doria did not panic but kept their heads to help themselves. In spite of tragic loss, this finer thing will be remembered longest. Unsinkable ships still sink. In spite of the best electronic science, people still make human mistakes. The cause of the collision will be investigated, and the blame will be determined, and out of it all we hope will come better safety precautions and a stricter watch for all ships at sea.

Radar, which came out of war, figures largely in this investigation. To those who are unfamiliar with the workings of radar, we offer this explanation. Imagine a ship following a coast in a dense fog. The coast is a perpindicular cliff. If the captain of the ship were to aim his foghorn at the cliff and sound it, he could determine his distance from shore by timing the echo which returned to him. Knowing the speed of sound he would calculate the time for the sound to hit the cliff and echo back and translate the time into distance from the shore. Radar is the "echo" of a radio wave traveling with the speed of light. If it hits nothing it will travel into space. If it hits a solid object the wave will return to register on a tube which was the forerunner of the television tube and is much the same. The echo appears as a bright spot or "pip". By rotating the radar antenna a picture can be drawn of everything surrounding the ship.

A good operator can identify different kinds of ships, planes, land, buoys and can tell range and direction of all. Radar was developed to be the eyes of the ship in darkness and in pea soup fog. If it is working properly and in skilled hands no fog is too dense for it to penetrate. It is one of the good things to come out of the war, and no ship, so equipped should hit anything or be hit by anything above the ocean surface.

Out of the investigations will come the truth, better regulations, and perhaps use of radar which should be the greatest lifesaver of all time by preventing such an accident from ever happening.

massacred 7 years ago by Robolen, a celebrated Chief that lives at Cloudy Bay in Cook's Straits. Ten years ago he was the terror of one half New Zealand and could boast of subjects by the thousands. He is alive now and people that know him tell me that he is 70 years of age. His hair is white, his face all tattoed up, dark piercing eyes, and dreadful must he appear in his rage to the enemy in his power.

To continue:

He now feels the superiority of the white men that have lately pitched his tent round about him, and don't go on his war excursions as formerly although he has a son that inherits his great talents. His prisoners of war he made slaves of. Some he fatted and killed and ate like pigs. Human brains was a dish that he most delighted in. Twenty years ago he conquered the inhabitants of Akaroa Bay and amongst the tribute that he required of them was a young child that he always ate up. About 10 miles up the Bay is a small Island about three fourths of a mile long and one half that broad, all excepting one or two places, it is difficult to land upon with boats on account of its high steep banks. It is fortified by the natives with ditches, pits and enbankments for shelter in case of attack. This now lonely spot is the Charnel house of Golgotha of this Bay. Many and sanguinary were the battles here fought. Here was the last refuge of the poor natives from the surrounding villages with their wives and little ones when pursued by their more powerful and blood thirsty foe from the North. Here they have laid down their lives to defend them from slavery and Death, or what is more horrible, to be killed and served up at the feast of the Victors.

Seven years ago before the whites settled here the inhabitants were all slain or carried away captive except a remant that concealed themselves in the mountains. When the French came here the year following, they found on the fortified Isle 5 or 6 hundred skull bones of the victims of the massacre, the particulars of which preceded. I believe it to be strictly true as related to me by James Robertson, a verry intelligent Englishman that was in New Zealand at the time and has since married a native woman and is now the Father of a family of three Children and lives at the Native Village. It was corroborated by others in evry particular.

to blow fresh. The atmosphere clear. We sun our potatoes and the ship under double reefed topsails. The blue hills of New Zealand fade from our sight this day.

February 9th. Sunday the weather continues as usual. We sun potatoes and catch a porpoise. Wind moderates a little. We break out the sail room and find the sails damaged with slime from the blubber room. Keep a bright look out from mast head for sperm whale but saw none.

February 10th. Monday begins with fine weather. This night the wind lulls and the weather is foggy. At 9 A.M. the wind suddenly hauls round S.S.W. and blows fresh. I forgot to mention that the effects of George Davis was brought on deck and sold at auction the first day out of Akaroa.

February 11th. Tuesday begins with a fresh breeze and the ship under single reefed topsails. We yesterday crossed the Antipodes of London. The old complaint in my left side now troubles me again and makes it difficult for me to breathe at times. This night squally with a heavy wind. At daylight keep her off N by E. At 9 A.M. steer North.

February 12th. Wednesday begins with pleasanter weather. We this day pass the Chatham Islands. We steer E.N.E. and N.E. by E. with topmast studdingsail out. A fine breeze from W.S.W. We have now two at the mast head on the main, and one forward and sometimes two. Nothing in sight.

February 13th. This day begins with fine weather and the wind from the West. The work of the day is knotting rope yarns, mending and binding studdingsails, cooper making buckets, and carpenter making scuttle, blacksmith making spikes. We passed a Bark standing to the West with no fore topgallant sail or mast up. There is now plenty of squid about us.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tinkham of Middleboro are visiting at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Figueiredo of Acushnet Road, Mattapoisett.

"FASHIONS FOR MY FAIR LADY" TO BE SPONSORED BY THE SIPPICAN WOMAN'S CLUB OF MARION

On Wednesday, August the 29th at 2:30 P.M., the Sippican Woman's Club is presenting a fashion show at Hoyt Hall, Tabor Academy in Marion, to benefit their Scholarship Fund. This gala occasion promises to be one of the most important events on the social calendar for late August in Marion.

The clothes to be shown that afternoon are to be presented through the courtesy of the California Shop of New Bedford. The lovely Hart models of Boston will be on hand that day wearing these new and interesting fashions and accessories which give the "fair lady" look its character. They will be accompanied by the Lilley quartet. Tables may be reserved, and there will be a great many single seats which may be obtained by calling Marion 237-M or Marion 303.

A large committee is working toward the success of the afternoon. Mrs. Alphonse W. Query and Mrs. Raymond H. Baxter are co-chairmen. Other sponsors planning to attend that afternoon to see the early fall fashions are Mrs. Parker Converse, Miss Edith Austin, Mmes. Henry W. Forester, Roderick Beebe, Irving Verry, Miss Elizabeth Robinson, Mmes. Gerald Eshleman, John W. Miller, Edwin D. Gardner, Charles J. Winkler, Jr., Hugh Hencken, Thayer Francis, Otto Braitmeyer, Charles F. Myers, James Wickenden, Philip See and Miss Amy Brewer.

X-I-M FLASH BOND

The Superior Seal and Bond for Improving the Adhering and Wearing Properties of Paint

This unretouched snapshot of a house was taken over four years ago. Up to that time, every year this house owner found that the paint blistered, flaked and peeled and a repaint job was necessary. He tried several kinds of paint without success, until X-I-M FLASH BOND was suggested and used as a base coat.

X-I-M
SINCE 1935
FLASH BOND

Here is an unretouched snapshot of the same house more than four years after the blistered and flaked surface had been removed and X-I-M FLASH BOND was applied as a sealer and bond coat, and a coat of paint applied. Not a sign of blistering, flaking or peeling. The outstanding results are evident!

X-I-M FLASH BOND provides a base for excellent adhesion of finish coats over most any surface, whether it be wood, plywood, pressedwood, brick, concrete, aluminum, copper or galvanized flashings, gutters, etc.

FIRST BLUEFISH

Mr. Jack Murphy of Linhares Avenue, Mattapoisett brought in the first bluefish of the season here this week. Mr. Murphy has been trying for blues for the past 3 weeks before finally landing one off Crescent Beach. Many more blues were brought in this week after they started to run.

The cover picture was taken by Mr. John Bates of Route 6, Marion, Mass. It shows a stern view of the Florence Eastman just after she was launched in June of 1922. In the background on the long wharf at the left can be seen the coal pocket of Arthur Perchard that has been gone now for many years, but at that time it was a landmark that many will remember. It is interesting to compare the boats in the slip to those there now. The cat has given way to the motorboat.

MATTAPOISETT MAN RECEIVES AWARD

Mr. Murray H. DeCoffe of North Street, Mattapoisett was honored at a dinner at The Skipper in Fairhaven on August 8th. Mr. William H. Barrar, District Manager, presented him with a $50 U. S. ANNUAL GARDEN PARTY

The annual garden party at Sacred Hearts Seminary on Great Neck Road, Wareham will be held Sunday, August 19th at 1 P.M. Selectman Walter Silveira of Fairhaven is the general chairman. The Very Rev. Paul J. Price, formerly of St. Anthony's Church, Mattapoisett, is the Superior at the Seminary.

FROM THE LOG OF THE WHALESHIP CHARLESTON BY DANIEL A BALDWIN ON THE VOYAGE FROM JUNE 28, 1844 to MARCH 9, 1847.

March 5th. Wednesday begins with light airs of wind and a burning sun. Some of the men take a swim. This night there is a plenty of lightning to the Northward and Westward. The weather is verry warm and sultry. At 9 o'clock this morning we saw a shoal of sperm whale. Capt. Chester strikes one and the iron draws. We chase them till half past 12. The Mary & Susan lowers her boats and Capt. Hubbard dines with us. After dinner Mr. Lyons goes on board the Mary & Susan and we have a gam.

March 6th. Thursday begins with light airs from East. Weather hot and sultry. This morning there is a fight between Sylvester Fowler and a Portugee Negro, both boatsteerers, and the Negro did not get what he deserved. We set up our topgallant rigging this day.

March 7th. Friday begins with hot weather and more wind. We fit new jib whips this day. We see Land this afternoon and suppose it to be Sir Charles Saunders Island and tack ship twice this night. At daylight saw two Islands. The most Eastern we think is Huaheine. Their situation on the Chart does not agree with our reckoning.

March 8th. Saturday finds us 10 miles to windward of Sir Charles Saunders Island, close hauled, running for Huaheine. Sir Charles Saunders Island seems to be uneven with two peaks that rise 12 or 1500 feet above the level of the Sea. The Island that I called Sir Charles Saunders is the Isle of Ulita. There is three Islands in sight 7 o'clock in the evening. We are now off Awharre Bay, Island of Huaheine. There is 5 ships at anchor inside the reef and six lying off and on. The Village looks verry pleasant with its white houses surrounded by cocoanut trees and other tropical trees. The Island is broken and uneven with Vallies and table land that is exceedingly fertile. We lie off and on this night. At daylight get Breakfast and I go on shore with Capt. Chester. We find there the Ships INDIA, NEPTUNE and Bark ALBREE of New London and Mystic, Ship CORINTHIAN of Bristol, R. I., ROSCOE and CICERO of New Bedford. The Ship AVERICK of New Bedford was lost on Ulatea a few days since. I found here a tropical country indeed. Oranges, cocoanuts, guavers, limes are so plenty here that we can have a plenty for the trouble of picking. The breadfruit and all kinds of tropical fruits abound here all the year round. The natives don't do much work. Their living grows spontaneously. They are a verry handsome race of people and their morals are corrupt indeed.

Sunday, March 9th, finds us ashore at Huahierre. Take tea on board the INDIA, Capt. Miller, and this night lie off and on. In the morning two boats go in shore for fruit and get 150 bushels of oranges, some bananas etc and come off. Mr. Comstock goes on shore again and comes off with the Capt. at 8 o'clock this evening. This night is calm and hot. At daylight we take a large shark.

The natives of the Society Islands are now at war with the French. They have had several battles and the French have taken Otehite. The Queen has fled to Ulatea that is now in sight of us. The Queen of Huaheire, after destroying the flag that the French hoisted two weeks ago on her Islands, took refuge with Queen Pomare on Ulatea and is now expecting a hostile visit from them. They are getting all the guns, powder and lead that they can together intending to fight to the last. They fought bravely with the French at Otchita and killed many. These Islands is among the most favored of any on the face of the globe. All kinds of tropical fruits and flowers eternally flourish here. There is acres of poppies growing wild. Nature supplies the Inhabitants with food without exertion on their part. And the climate is as healthy as Connecticut. The climate here is good for consumptive patients.

March 10th. Tuesday begins with calm, hot weather - the thermometer up to 90. We have made our last stop till we get on to Kamchatka. The SUSAN & MARY of Stonington is now agoing to leave us for Mowee and forward letters. I write again to my wife this day. We sort out and hang up our oranges and bananas. We lower for blackfish but saw none. The Islands bear S.W. dist. 18 miles.

Bright Isles of the Ocean I bid you
Adieu
For the path of my future leads distant from you,
You seem like the primeval Eden of old
Whose Denisons need neither Silver or Gold.

March 11th. Wednesday begins with hot weather and a light air of wind. We get out new fore yard and rig it. We continue work on the yard and do other light jobs. The wind is North and about that point instead of southeast trades. We leave our letters onboard of the SUSAN & MARY and part company with her.

March 12th. Thursday begins with a light breeze from the Northward. We are still in sight of three Islands. The wind continues to blow from the Northward. We tack ship twice this day. This morning at daylight there is a sail in sight abeam to leeward.

He was for over twenty years director of the world famous Perkins School for the Blind, and is now director emeritus of the school, having retired five years ago.

HOUSE TOUR - MARION, MASS.

A tour of Marion houses to benefit St. Gabriel's Episcopal Church is being planned for Wednesday, August 15, 1956, from 10:30 A.M. to 5:30 P.M. Tickets may be obtained at the church or from Mrs. Russell Makepeace, ticket chairman, and will also be on sale at all the houses. Throughout the day lunch and tea will be served in the Parish House by the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Gabriel's. A large committee is arranging this tour, of which Mrs. William H. Prewitt and Mrs. Charles J. Winkler, Jr., are co-chairmen. Transportation will be available for those wishing it.

Among the houses to be opened is the Countway Estate, home of the late Francis Countway of Boston. Built around the turn of the century, the house is in true Spanish style with a central enclosed courtyard, Moorish arches, and vaulted ceiling drawing room; it is furnished with exquisite foreign pieces gathered by Mr. Countway in his travels. One of the South Shore's loveliest estates, its gardens will be of especial interest to horticulturalists.

The Winthrop B. Wings' rambling Cape house was moved from its former exposed situation after weathering three hurricanes and now occupies a garden setting on a high promonotory overlooking Marion Harbor. Antique lovers will take great delight in the charming pine paneled library, filled with old furniture, pewter and pine.

After the hurricane of '54, the Paul Burdetts took refuge in their carriage house. This year-round, story and a half house, makes a most livable home while retaining many of the pleasant features of the old building, and shelters a fine collection of Staffordshire, lustres and Sandwich cup plates.

Red Brook Farm in North Marion is an excellent reproduction of a Cape Cod house, set under stately old elms on beautifully landscaped grounds. Farming and cattle raising is the hobby of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. DeWalt.

The Old Windmill, built by Henry Ryder who was shipwrecked on the whaling schooner, "Graduate" in 1869, has been converted into an attractive home by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ashworth. In this tiny house space has been utilized to the best advantage in an imaginative and unique manner.

The Rev. John Brooks and his brother, the Rev. Phillips Brooks summered many years ago in the house owned by the John Fallows. The present owners, with a great deal of thought and planning, have recently rebuilt this charming old home.

The "Captain Cobb House" is the home of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond H. Baxter and was built in the early 1800's, and Elizabeth Taber, founder of Tabor Academy, was often a summer visitor here. The house has a charming air of comfort and informality and with its old glass and Currier and Ives prints, preserves much of the feeling of its early days.

The Gordon Gibbs house, beautifully located under copper beeches and overlooking the Harbor entrance, was designed by George W. W. Brewster and won the 1954 Architects' Institute Award. The interior of the house lends a great feeling of space, and is beautifully appointed with restraint and imagination.

Working toward the success of the House Tour are the Rev. and Mrs. John J. Albert; Mrs. Harold Cutler, chairman of patronesses; Mrs. R. V. Wakeman and Mrs. E. M. Bullivant, publicity; Mrs. R. Brent Keyser and Mrs. Frederick P. See, hostesses. Mrs. George Nowell is in charge of advertising; Mrs. Russell Makepeace is ticket chairman and Mrs. Louis Garty is lunch and tea chairman. Mrs. C. Campbell Patterson will arrange the flowers in the church, which will be open on the day of the tour.

Hostesses at the different houses will be Mrs. John Andres, Mrs. Ralph Aubin, Mrs. Frank

ROCHESTER CD HOST TO OUT OF TOWN CD OFFICIALS

Hoyle Demoranville, director of Civil Defense in the town of Rochester, acted as leader at a round table discussion of various CD problems with guests present from Middleboro and Lakeville. Those who attended the meeting which was held in the vestry of the Congregational Church were Clayton Thomas, director of Civil Defense in Middleboro; Joseph Walker, Chief Warden, Middleboro; Dr. Ray O. Delano, Chief of Auxiliary Police in Lakeville; Edward Holmes, Sgt. Auxiliary Police in Lakeville and Roger Beach, head of Rescue Service in Lakeville.

The meeting was held with the idea of discussing mutual problems and exchanging ideas with other towns of comparable size and population. The group discussed evacuation routes from the Boston area, housing and sanitation, the work of the auxiliary police, rescue work and equipment required and the need for more specific information applicable to small towns. The value of having the good will and cooperation of other organizations in a town was stressed. Members of the Rochester CD staff who attended the discussion were Mr. Clifton Chase, Rescue Service; Mrs. Clifton Chase, Medical and Health; Mrs. William Warburton, Welfare Service; Mr. Calvin Daggett and Warren Doane, Sr., Ground Observer Corps; Miss Joanne Geilear, Intelligence; Mr. A. February 15th. Saturday begins with pleasant weather and a fair wind. We continue to clean our bone and wonder that we see no sperm whale. We finish our bone and kill two goats. Wind hauls round N.N.W. A smooth sea and fine weather.

February 16th. Sunday fine weather continues. We this day pack our whale bone in bundles and stow it away. There is 49 bundles of 75 lbs each. Wind North. Pleasant weather continues.

February 19th. Wednesday fine weather continues. We finish overhauling between decks and stow down salt water in the lower hold. The wind hauls around North and blows fresh at the end of this day.

February 22nd. Wednesday begins with pleasant weather. Wind N.W. The weather is now beautiful. The wind the northward and westward. This morning the dog fell overboard by attempting to get into the Larboard Quarter Boat. I think he will be cautious about going aloft hereafter.

February 24th. Monday begins with beautiful weather and light airs from N.N.E. that blow as if they were just awakened from Paradise. They come so silent, so sweet and refreshing that it seems as if breathed from the Land of the Blest.

This night all was silent and hush'd in

The bright Queen of Night from the waters arose
And smil'd pale and sad on the Ocean at rest.

The stars brightly shone from the blue vault on high,
Our Ship gently rode like a sea bird at rest,
There was light sounds of mirth and of gaiety nigh,
But my heart was behind in the far distant West.

With fancy I wander'd back to the scenes
That sacredly steal like a vision to me
Like shadows oer memory they glide oer my dreams
While sunk in repose on the wild raging sea.

February 25th. Tuesday begins with fine summer weather and light airs from North by West. This day completes 8 months from home. We get up a preventer to support the mainmast in cutting in whale. Scour the white waist and paint the bobstays. At 2 o'clock this night there is heavy squalls of rain.

February 26th. Wednesday begins with moderate weather and the appearance of rain. This afternoon the wind comes out E.N.E. and blows fresh. We set the topmast studdingsail and steer N. by West for the Society Islands and the ship runs to the Northward like a thing of life.

February 28th. Friday begins with the wind E.N.E. and rain occasionally. This night there is verry little wind with a scotch mist and verry warm. At 4 A.M. the wind springs up from S.E. We set fore topmast studdingsail and keep on our way N. by W. This morning at daylight we saw a large ship on our weather beam standing North with no fore and mizzen topgallant sails set. I forgot to say that yesterday morning we saw a Hermophrodite Brig standing South, we suppose bound round Cape Horn.

March 1st, 1845. Saturday begins with fine weather and wind S.E. We this day tar down our rigging. The South East trade winds breathe gently over us and this evening the sounds of mirth and gaiety show that Sorrow and care is not a guest with our crew. This day ends with squalls of wind and rain and the wind blowing from all points of the compass between North East and South East.

March 2nd. Sunday begins with pleasanter weather and a steady breeze. We have fresh trade winds the rest of this day and expect to make the land.

March 3rd. Monday begins with the trades blowing fresh. At 2 o'clock P.M. the cry of "land ho" from mast head announced that the Island of Tooboual, one of the Society Islands, was in sight 25 miles distant bearing N.E. by E. ½ E. It is high land and seems to be irregular and broken. At 6 P.M. we came near the land and found it surrounded by coral reefs, making it verry dangerous for ships to approach within 6 miles of it. It appears to be covered with cocoanut, orange and other tropical trees. It has beautiful vallies and level land andis exceedingly fertile. It seemed to my longing eyes to be some terrestial Paradise and I thought that if I could take up my abode there and have all the friends that I love best around me I should never de-

ENTERTAINED AT FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bumpus of Brandt Island Road, Mattapoisett were hosts for a family reunion of descendants of the late William and Clara Allen, Mrs. (Evelyn Allen) Bumpus' paternal grandparents, on Sunday, August 12. A clamboil was served out of doors on a long table under trees, gaily decorated with colored balloons. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Hart (Mr. Hart is Shellfish Warden of Westport), Mr. and Mrs. Fred Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Palmer, Jr. (Mr. Palmer is a Westport Patrolman) and family, all of Westport, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mosher and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marland of East Bridgewater; Mrs. Clara Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Beale, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Belli, Mrs. Irene Gifford, Mr. William Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. George Allen, Mr. and Mrs. William Osborne and family, all of New Bedford; and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Winston Allen of Tiverton, Rhode Island.

The Allen family lived for many years on Drift Road in Westport, and were members of the Westport Point Methodist Church. Their grandfather, the late Mr. Eli Allen, was a shipbuilder.

Mrs. Bumpus is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Allen of New Bedford.

Ann and Gordon Bumpus entertained the younger guests at a beach party in the afternoon, including William, Linda and Kathy Osborne and Jane and Roy Palmer.

COVER PICTURE

Many people will have recognized the lines of the Charles W. Morgan on our cover. This is a pen and ink and watercolor wash drawing of the whaleship in the ship ways at New Bedford. This famous bark of 314 tons, 105.6 ft. length, 27.7 ft. beam, 17.6 ft. depth, and was built in 1841 in New Bedford, Mass. She was named after one of the most successful whaling merchants of his time. The Morgan has a remarkable record running over a period of eighty active whaling years. She made thirty-seven voyages, cruising the Artic, Antartic, Atlantic, Pacific Oceans, the Japan and Orhotsk Seas and the Indian Ocean. She covered more miles and took more whales than any other whaleship going into every known sea where whales were found.

The Morgan's log records adventure by the mile. She had mutinies at sea, had been set afire by the crew. She weathered 2 hurricanes and was struck by lightning 3 times. She had been aground.

One time when the Morgan was in port, a blazing steamer drifted across the harbor, and sank along side her, and the Morgan emerged scorched but undamaged. She made her final voyage on September 9, 1920 returning to her homeport, New Bedford with 700 barrels of sperm oil.

She was originally ship rigged but in 1876 she was altered into a bark. When she was enshrined at Round Hill at the late Col. Green estate, she was again ship rigged as she is today at Mystic, Conn., as she appeared on our February 9, 1956 cover.

The Morgan remains as the last whaleship in existence, a living monument of live oak er and light airs from the Northward and Westward. This day we begin to break out the after hatch and cooper our beef and pork. We have had a little more air this day.

March 23rd. Monday begins with light airs from the West. We are this day earnestly engaged painting ship below and aloft. We continue to have light variable airs and calms, March 26th. Thursday begins with a light air from N.E. Warm and discouraging weather and a verry anxious desire to hear from Home. The weather continues squally with more wind. We this day fall in with a dead sperm whale a drifting from North East to South West. He seemed to have been dead 5 or 6 days and was worthless. He was surrounded by sharks.

March 27th. Friday begins with squally weather. We have squalls about evry hour with a deluge of rain and wind that lays our goodly ship on our side and compels us to clew down top gallant sails and topsails, brail up the spanker and haul down the flying jib. As quick as the wind has passed we set them again. The squalls come from N.E. and E.N.E. No observation.

March 30th. Monday begins with cloudy squally weather as usual. We take in the bow boat to repair her. This night about 5 o'clock we have verry black and heavy squalls with rain like a deluge.

Pleasanter at the end of this day.

April 2nd. Thursday begins with fair weather and the ship a going 3½ knots. We continue to repair sails. We have some squalls this day. At 10 A.M. we make the land which proves to be Fannings Island. It is verry low and level 20 or 30 miles long with a passage through it. It seems to be level with a low coral beach, covered with evergreen verdure with cocoanut trees, orange and all other tropical trees in abundance. It seemed to my vision, wearied as it was with the sight of nothing but water and sky, to be the most Beautiful Land that my eyes ever saw. It seemed like some Paradise away one side from the Jar and Tumult of the world and all it wanted to make this picture complete was the presence in it of all the Dear Ones that I Love best.

April 3rd. Friday begins with the wind a blowing fresh and the sea ahead. Ship close hauled running North 6 knots. That beautiful Island is fast fading from my sight. This night squalls again visit us often attended with rain, wind, thunder and lightning such as the Torrid Zone can only produce. This morning at half past five I was aroused from my slumbers by the loud Order of "Let go the topsail halyards and haul up the mainsail". When fairly awake I found myself lying on the side of my berth instead of the bottom. When the topsails came down she righted and trembled like a being with life just coming out of a Death struggle. No observation.

April 6th. Tuesday begins with the trades fresh. We set up the fore topgallant rigging. The ship is going 6 knots and some times more. We are nearing the whaling ground verry fast and God bless our exertions and give us a short voyage. This day I paint my Boat, the top black, the bottom lead and a white ribbon between. This day is quite pleasant with clouds as usual flitting across the horizon.

April 7th. Wednesday begins with pleasant weather and a fine breeze. Ship goes from 6 to 8 knots. This day we coil new tow line to all the boats and break out the blubber room and clear up between decks. At 11A.M. saw a large Ship which proves to be a whaler bound the same way that we are.

April 9th. Friday begins with fine weather and a gentle breeze. Our friend of yesterday is hovering near us. We this day take down Mr. Lyons boat to repair her. The Larboard watch put a preventer on shroud that is stranded.

April 10th. Saturday begins with fine weather and the ship going N.W. by N. a point free. The Cooper makes a skimmer out of iron hoops and we break out water from the lower hold forward for the first time out from New Zealand. I this day take the ceiling out of my Boat and scrape, wash and varnish her inside. This night the Starboard watch take a large porpoise, and I am haunted with troubled dreams.

April 12th. Monday begins with moderate weather. Wind not so favorable. We unbend the main topsail from forward, bend another in its place and begin to repair it. This day some of our Boats are ornamented with sun, moon, stars and various domestic animals such as hogs, horses, etc. I think the Whales will be astonished when they see the hosts of heaven and the beasts of the field after them.

topsail and begin a foresail. We rip up an old top gallant sail and cut new preventer warps 4 fathoms long. The wind does off at the end of this day and it is calm. The N.E. trades have done. We had no S.E. trades but the N.E. trades we have brought fresh from the line to 28½ North.

April 15th. Thursday begins with a calm with light fleecy clouds hovering about us as usual. This night is verry pleasant. At daylight the weather changes. The wind blows fresh, and cloudy with a verry heavy swell from the North. We saw two whales this day we think are sperm.

April 18th. Sunday begins with a scotch mist and Cloudy. Wind fresh from N. Wind veers round N.E. with thick weather and rain. This night at 10 we pass 2 large ships under easy sail, close hauled, heading to the southward and Eastward. We spoke one. We understood her to be the HIBERNIA of New London. The other was a four Boat ship with fore and mizzen topgallant masts down. We suppose they have seen whales on the Banks here. We put the ship under double reefed topsails and furl the mainsail. At 3 in the morning wear Ship close hauled. Wear again at 6. Four ships in sight at daylight. At 8 keep her off West by South. Saw nothing but a tree afloat surrounded by fish.

April 19th. Monday begins with thick weather, wind blowing a gale. Evrything reminds us that we are nearing the haunts of the right whale. The wind begins to scream sadly and the whale birds and the mottymake begin to hover near us. Gale increases. This night heave the ship to under a double reefed main topsail heading N.N.W. Gale continues. At 6 A.M. close reef the main topsail. There is now a regular North Easter a blowing. The sea runs verry irregular and there is some danger of bow and waist boats. Saw 6 whales below.

April 21st. Wednesday begins with the Gale abating. Set the fore and main topsails, double reefed, and set foresail and keep her off West. We send down royal yards. We have received a rough reception in these seas. At 5 P.M. saw a ship to leeward standing to the Northward and Westward. Porpoises in abundance about us this day. We take one and kill a dozen more.

April 22nd. Thursday begins with a moderate breeze from N.E. and pleasant. We bend old topgallant sails and jib in the room of better ones Saw 2 or 3 finbacks this day. A plenty of finbacks around the rest of this day.

ROCHESTER WINS OVER MARION

Marion lost a very good chance to get in position to catch Rochester in the second half of the schedule when Rochester drubbed them 9 to 5. Peter Sylvia pitched a complete game in winning with Paul Jefferson taking the loss. Billy Cleminshaw and Tommy Gayoski each drove in 3 runs with 2 hits apiece. Joe Cummings had 2 hits for Marion who only got 3.

"FOUR SAILOR GIRLS" OF THE MECHANIC STREET PLAYHOUSE PRESENT DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM

In the most modern "live" TV manner, a delightful hour of entertainment was presented by the "Four Sailor Girls" at the Mechanic Street Playhouse to an enthusiastic and an appreciative audience.

From the first commercial---quote--Men, do I see shaggy Beards? USE Whizzle Whizz to Whisk your Whiskers away in a Whiffy--end quote, to the final exhibition of baton twirling the performance was brisk and busy.

The high spot of the evening was the presentation of MEDIC in which an appendectomy was performed with precision and dispatch. Miss Ruth Heuberger, who was the operating surgeon, was as deft with the kitchen carving knife as she was with what looked to the audience very much like a garden trowel and weed mulcher. Various other intruments were used in proper order, i.e., tablespoons, nutpicks, clamps, and of course sutures. Miss Linda Montgomery was the very able doctor administering the anesthesia whose equipment resembled closely a bicycle tire pump, which she used conscientiously and vigorously. Both doctors were attired in gleaming white gowns with the necessary facial masks. Assisting the doctors were two Red Cross Nurses' Aides in complete uniforms, Miss Susan Erhard being the sterile nurse and Miss Gale Heuberger as the recording nurse. Both should be complimented on their intent assistance to the doctors. The patient was anonymous and it is said is making a rapid recovery.

Between various skits were such stirring commercials as--Slick Wick Stick, the household helper which makes your house smell. Our competitors say they can make your house smell like fresh air but we say--fresh air is right out doors. Remember, Slipquick Stick will make your house smell the way a house should smell: AND Are your eyebrows dry and crinkly? If so you should use Winkle Dinkle. Winkle Dinkle will make them grow long and curly. Remember Winkle Dinkle for Better Brows and Better Winks.

sight. We saw the first right whale and chased him till 2 o'clock. The Starboard Quarter Boat struck him in the flukes but did not hold on. But went off verry much astonished. This night it blows fresh from S.S.W. Put the ship under double reefed topsails and steer W. by N. It continues to blow. Sea rough. Saw no more whales. At 8 A.M. keep her off N.W.W. for a higher Northern Latitude.

April 24th. Saturday begins with fresh gales from S.S.W. We this day rig a stove in the Cabin. It comes in rainy and thick with a heavy swell from the West. Heave the ship to this night. At 10 it blows fresh from N.E. Make sail at half past 5 A.M. with double reefed topsails, mainsail furled. Gales continue to freshen and no observation.

April 25th. Sunday begins with a Gale from N.E. Aplenty of rain this day. Wind as cold as if just breathed from the bowels of an Iceberg. This night the sun sets clear and wind hauls round N.W. This day ends with pleasant weather. There has been a plenty of red whale feed about us for three or four days. Today there is a plenty of finbacks in sight. We strike a porpoise and lose him.

April 26th. Monday begins with pleasant weather. Wind N.W. Horizon nearly clear. We pass a large stick of timber with a large shark near it. The nearest land now is the Coast of Japan. This night is calm and humpbacks blowing about the ship. This day ends with light airs from the south with fog banks about us. We saw several Humpbacks, Sulphurbottoms and finbacks. We lowered for a Humpback but did not get nigh him.

N.N.E. It seems to be the Breath of Winter. This night the wind veers round East and blows a gale. The wind is as cold as if it had been filtered through all the snow banks of Siberia. We heave the ship to at 8 A.M. At 10 a snow storm begins, so thick that we cannot see one half mile. There is pieces of drift wood about this day.

May 3rd. Saturday begins with a gale of wind and a severe snow storm, the watch snowballing about decks. This night the storm howls wildly and the wind veers round to the North. The snowstorm lasts 18 hours. Make sail at 7 A.M., the weather pleasanter. There seems to be much wood floating about these seas.

May 4th. Sunday begins with pleasanter weather. I got two pairs of shoes from the Slop Chest yesterday. At daylight this morning we saw a ship cutting in a whale without her topsails set. At 8 she made sail and started her try works. Some Humpbacks in sight this day.

May 5th. Monday begins with light airs and clear and cold. I forgot to say that our monkey died on the third. We saw a right whale at 5. Lowered, and the waist boat struck him. He died and sunk. Hauled him up and saved him with difficulty. We cut him in in the night. Finished at 2 o'clock. The blanket piece tore out and knocked Oliver overboard. It injured him so that he is not able to do duty. We saw a dozen right whales this day. They all seemed to be going. We lowered three times. The Ship in sight is the WISCASET of Sag Harbor.

May 6th. Tuesday begins with strong gales and increasing from E.S.S. Lowered for Whales 2 or three times. Mr. Comstock went on to a large one. His Boatsteerer, Cyrus Follet, missed him. He turned him out of the boat and takes Manuel in his place. He now steers Mr. Lyons' protem till his Boatsteerer that was hurt gets well. Our Sag Harbor friend is in sight, boiling. Light winds from the East the latter part of this day.

May 7th. Wednesday begins with light winds from the East and foggy. We saw whale and lowered for him and Frederic A. Sampson, Boatsteerer, missed him. This night wind N.E. and foggy. This day is only 12 hours long. It ends this night at midnight so that I can keep Civil account while on the whale ground. This 36 hours is Wednesday. This day begins with wind N.E. (Thursday, May 8th) We finish trying out our whale. It was a yearling Bull, not much oil in his blubber. His frame was big enough for 140 barrels, his body being 80 or 90 feet long. He will make 65 or 70 barrels. Weather clears up at noon. We make sail but saw no whale the rest of this day. This day ends with gale beginning from S.W.

May 9th.and 10th. Friday begins with the Gale howling wildly and squalls of snow. Moderates a little at noon. We set the foresail this night. The wind lulls.

MARION ART SHOW

An outdoor Art Show was held Saturday in Marion. The collection included both realistic and abstract paintings done by many Marion residents. The show reflects the growing interest in art as a recreation for everyone. About 75 paintings were exhibited as well as some piece of sculpture. It was an interesting exhibit and I'm sure was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. This is Marion's first Art Show, and perhaps the beginning of a worthwhile annual event.

MATTAPOISETT SWIMMING MEET

One of the liveliest and most worthwhile events of the season took place at the Mattapoisett Public Bathing Beach recently, as the town boys and girls took part in the annual swimming meet. It is a significant fact that almost never do you hear of a water accident in Mattapoisett. This event is the finish of a summer long training program to teach youngsters how to handle themselves in the water. Mattapoisett boys and girls are most fortunate to receive this training which will give them so much enjoyment all their lives, and also may well save their lives in an emergency. The swim across the harbor, a distance of one mile is certain proof that the young people have learned how to swim well and also as in perfect condition. This event was entered by 5 girls and by 6 boys in two divisions. The girls' race was won by Katharine Mahoney with Anne Fitzgerald second. Douglas Johnson was the winner in the boys' race with George Waterson second.

Many other swimming contests were held in events for both girls and boys.

Winners were: 20 yard freestyle, 5 to 8 years, 1st, Andrea Dazzi; Kathleen Ellis, 2nd and Paula Mogilnicki, 3rd; 50 yard freestyle, 9 to 11 years, Barbara Harriman, 1st; Patricia Higgins, 2nd and Sharon Edward, 3rd; 100 yard freestyle, 12 to 14 years, Nancy Peck, 1st; Holly Smith, 2nd; and Claire Greene, 3rd; 100 yard freestyle, 15 years, Ann Farley, 1st; Anne Fitzgerald, 2nd; Roberta Waterson, 3rd

Winners in the boys' class were: 20 yard freestyle, 5 to 8 years, David Souza, 1st; James Dazzi, 2nd; 50 yard freestyle, 9 to 11 years, William Gerry, 1st, Gardner Knight, 2nd and Fred Graeben, 3rd; 100 yard freestyle, 12 to 14 years, Robert McGowan, 1st; William Young, 2nd and Arthur Horvitz, 3rd; 100 yard freestyle, 15 years, George Waterson, 1st; Douglas Johnson, 2nd and Victor Urquiola, 3rd; diving, John Lariviere, 1st and Fred Graeben, 2nd.

Mrs. Jean Dazzi, Michael Ellis and Nathaniel Mendell acted as judges.

The Patricia Walsh Memorial Award, a trophy presented by the Mattapoisett Lions Club, was presented by Albert Boucher, lifeguard and swimming instructor, to William Gerry. This award is based on cooperation and helpfulness to the lifeguard for the season. The winner's name is also inscribed on a plaque which hangs in the Public Library.

JERRY, THE LOST BEAGLE PUPPY

Perhaps you have noticed an advertisement running in our classified column for a lost beagle puppy named Jerry. Everyone who owns a pup knows how it hurts to lose them. Mrs. Croker, the owner, writes that she and her husband have seen the pup near enough to call to him, but apparently he has been scared or hurt for he is confused and very shy. He ran into the woods and would not come out. He is only 10 months old, so it is unlikely that he will find the way to his home. The owners are leaving food at the place where he was seen and it is sometimes gone. So if you see this pup and can tempt him to come to you without scaring him any further, please see that he is returned to the Crokers. For a complete description see the classified column under lost. He will be in the vicinity of Sherman Road, perhaps in the fields or along the road by the woods in Rochester.

IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION ANNUAL MEETING

The Mattapoisett Improvement Association will hold its annual meeting Tuesday night, September 25th at the Silver Gull. The committee in charge of the tickets will attempt to contact each member, as it is necessary to know in advance the number to be served. All members are urged to attend.

For many years a sign bearing the figure of King Philip has hung from the flag pole at the Town Hall. Each fall, Miss Alice Stackpole used to have it removed, the painting touched up, and then have it rehung in the spring. Since the last hurricane, the sign has not been in place. The attention of the Improvement Association was called to its absence by Mrs. Charles Hamlin, who suggested that, since the Association put it up originally, it should see that it was rehung. We hope we shall again see the long familiar figure of King Philip with his outstretched arms of welcome restored to its old place.

2 or 3 hours. It being very rough and blowing a gale, we did not get any. Came on board. Hove the ship to. Weather cold as winter with snow squalls.

May 13th. Tuesday. This night the weather is so cold that fresh water freezes on deck. More moderate at noon. Make sail. Saw 2 or 3 whales. Lowered for them. Did not get fast. Spoke the PANAMA of Sag Harbor, 9 whale. Her boats frightened the whales that we chased. We finish trying out our whale. It will make over 100 barrels.

May 14th. Wednesday begins with the wind S.W. We make sail in the morning. It comes in thick and foggy and continues so through this day. We stow down our whale. It makes 112 barrels. At 4 we saw a right whale near the ship. We lowered and he ran off with the fog. No Observation this day.

May 15th. Thursday begins with a calm. It is thick and foggy all through this day. This morning a right whale came around the ship so near that any one might have thrown an iron into him. Capt. Chester lowered with Mr. Lyons to steer him. He darted a lance into him. It was so thick that he dare not fasten to him. It began to blow about noon. It cleared a little. We lowered for a whale. Mr. Lyons put one iron into him. He sounded and it drew out. We saw 7 whales this day but we are enveloped in fog as thick as the veil of futurity. This day ends with the barometer falling and evry appearance of a gale from the East.

May 16th. Friday begins with a gale from E.S.E. It moderates with fog. At daylight the wind blows fresh from the West. This forenoon take a porpoise. We saw whales at 12. Lowered but did not strike him. At 2 lowered and the Bow Boat got fast. We killed him and got him alongside. At 6 finished cutting him in. At half past 11 at night a strange sail is in sight.

May 17th. Saturday begins with thick foggy weather. Wind E.S.E. We start the try works at 8 A.M. At 10 it rains verry hard. Wind light. Thick, foggy and rainy. I forgot to say yesterday that Mr. Lyons got his Boat stove by the whale's fin while lancing him. He cut, and by great exertion kept his Boat afloat till he reached the Ship. The Bow Boat's irons came out. The rest of this day it storms alternately with snow and rain and verry thick indeed. There is whales about us. We lowered once and attempted to lower again but a snowstorm prevented. The wind hauls round N.E. at night and blows fresh with evry appearance of a Gale from that quarter.

May 19th. Monday the weather is more moderate. We saw several whales. Mr. Comstock gets fast to one. He runs with him 4 hours and he was obliged to cut from him as no other boat could get fast. There is two ships in sight. One of them got a whale. It blows a gale this night from S.S.W. There has been snow squalls all day, sometimes so thick that we could not see a distance of 40 rods.

May 23rd. Friday begins with pleasanter weather. We saw 8 or 9 whales. We see the sun a short time.

HATHAWAY OIL TO ENLARGE

Of interest from a standpoint of confidence in the future of this area is the plans Hathaway Oil Co. have for their business modernization. The County Street showroom and office is being enlarged the full size of the show window front. Redecoration plans, relocation of office to the rear and the entire front section for every type of heating display, will give the prospect a live demonstration of all three and eliminate blind buying. A new modern fuel plant to be constructed will complete the plan and should give courage to everyone in business, as it is a good example of New England foresight and spirit which with fair dealing practices has brought this organization to this pinacle of success. Seeing is believing, so stop in when the opening is announced, probably in October, and see this wonderful showroom and visit with these fine people.

TO ENTERTAIN EVENING AUXILIARY

Mrs. Clifford G. Atkinson of River Road, Mattapoisett will entertain this Wednesday evening members of the Evening Auxiliary of the Grace Episcopal Church of New Bedford at her home.

VISITED IN MARYLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Brown, Jr. of Burgess Avenue, Rochester visited Mr. and Mrs. Lester H. Collins of Silver Spring, Maryland over the Labor Day weekend.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mr. Jonathan Kinney has returned to his home on Church Street, Mattapoisett from St. Luke's Hospital in New Bedford.

MOVED ON WATER STREET

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Locke and children have moved from Bolles Corner, Mattapoisett to their newly purchased home on Water Street, Mattapoisett, formerly the Clifford I. Tripp home.

JERRY HOME AGAIN

The lost beagle hound, Jerry, who was the object of along search has been returned to his owners, Mr. and Mrs. Croker of Rochester. So many people took an active part in looking for him and in informing his owners of his location, that we think it will interest you to know that he was found and was caught in a barn. Food was placed for him inside and when the dog went in the door was closed. When his owners arrived he was very timid at first, but was soon overjoyed as were Mr. and Mrs. Croker to have him back.

RETURNED TO SCHOOL OF DESIGN

Cyrus D. Lipsitt, son of Attorney and Mrs. Joseph Lipsitt of Marion, Mass., has returned to the Rhode Island School of Design in Providence where he is in his junior year. Cyrus is editor of the school paper, "Block Print", having been the feature editor last year. He spent the summer teaching arts and crafts at Indian Head Camp in Pembroke, Mass.

Cyrus and his brother, Peter, both exhibited recently in the Marion Art Show. Peter is an honor student at Tabor Academy, entering his senior year.

May 24th. Saturday we have a gale from S.W. We spoke the Ship HENRY TUKE of Warren, R. I. Reported nothing. She was lying to under a close reefed main topsail. The PHOENIX had a boatsteerer killed by a whale about 10 days ago. We this day unbend the main topsail to repair it.

May 26th. Monday a heavy Gale from N.W. with snow squalls and the ocean is troubled. Saw three whales. We are today visited by two Land birds that seem wearied and worn. They are much like our American sparrows. There comes onboard likewise a sea bird that seems much like a black parrot with webbed feet.

May 27th. Tuesday. The gale abates. Weather moderate. Wind N.W. and cloudy. At 5 A.M. we saw a whale and the waist boat struck him. We killed him. While cutting him in more whales came up. Mr.Lyons lowered and got fast. Then the rest lowered. He died 1½ miles to windward of the ship. He was the ugliest whale I ever saw. We got him alongside about 6 P.M., finished cutting him in about ½ past 11 at night. Snow squalls this night. 4 sail in sight. We are now full of blubber.

May 28th, Wednesday. We this day have fresh gales from W.N.W. with snow squalls. We clear up decks which presented a greasy sight to our view at daylight. We start the try works and our whales boil free. I forgot to say that yesterday I killed a seal by darting my lance through him. He came up near the whale that I was fast to.

May 29th. Thursday we have fresh gales from

CELEBRATES 101st BIRTHDAY AT POINT CONNETT

Mrs. Charles E. Webb was guest of honor at a party Saturday in honor of her 101st birthday at the summer home of her daughter, Mr. Abner Smith. She received a birthday cake, gifts, many cards and calls from her friends.

Mrs. Webb, very alert, makes her home with her daughter in Middleboro, where she watches TV, listens to the radio and occasionally wipes the dishes.

She and Mr. Webb, with the Frederick Allens and Julius Tuttles, were the original summer residents and built the first cottage at Point Connett in 1906.

Those of the family present were her daughter, Mrs. Smith, a granddaughter, Mrs. Herbert Reimels with her husband and children, Thomas, Robert and Linda, and Mr. Riemels mother and sister.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

We print the following received from Mrs. C. S. Hamlin of Ned's Point Road, Mattapoisett:

The Government is certainly doing its share for the restoration and preservation of the Ned's Point Lighthouse. Last year it spent a large sum on a protecting wall -- a stone bulwark around the Point and also on a deep stone and cement foundation which had been almost washed away in the hurricanes. In fact the building was on the verge of collapsing. In return what care or interest is shown by the public for this beautiful park -- a site appreciated by hundreds of visitors at all seasons.

It is littered by careless picnickers -- the rocks are covered with the debris not washed away by the tides. The trash barrels carried off in the last hurricane have not been replaced and the many trees killed by the salt water--stand like ghosts--gaunt and dreary.

This year the Government is putting the building itself in thorough repair. It is sand blasted and will be painted inside and out and will stand more than ever as a guide of safety and beauty into our harbour.

Why should not our Town and its many organizations as well as the public cooperate with the Government in its effort to preserve a beauty spot of which we should be very proud.

between ordinary paint and beauty for your walls. The makers of KOTALL don't mix a few colors together, pour it in a can and hope it sells. They go to great lengths to test the reaction of thousands of women before they acclaim a color as standard. honor of his 8th birthday. Nine of his friends were present. They enjoyed games and were served cake and ice cream.

FROM THE LOG OF THE WHALESHIP CHARLESTON BY DANIEL A. BALDWIN ON THE VOYAGE FROM JUNE 28, 1844 to MARCH 9, 1847.

June 8th. Sunday we have thick fog and light airs from the Northward and Westward. This is the pleasantest day we have had this season but the fog is so thick that we can hardly see 20 rods.

June 12th. Thursday we have the wind South, thick fog. Saw two right whales, one at daylight, the other at 2 P.M., that we lowered for. The waist boat struck him after performing various maneuvers. He finally turned up. He turned over Mr. Lyons' Boat without any serious accident and he tumbled me out of my boat overboard while trying to haul my lance out of him. I found swimming in this cold water to be an unpleasant operation. It was a verry large Cow Whale, but not very fat. We clear up decks and start the try works this night.

June 13th. Tuesday we have a Gale from the South with thick fog. At noon we are in thick green water that denotes bottom near. Wear

NOTE:

Now that the weather's getting frisky
Change your drink to Blended Whisky
Or, if you prefer one of these twins
We can still serve you Scotch or Gins
Beer and Wines of various brands
Are to be had for your demands.

Ship. Lay her to the Eastward and in one hour alter the colour of the water to Ocean's Azure dark. It begins to rain and at 2 P.M. cool down the try works. Clears up a little. Saw one whale. No observation for a week.

June 14th. Saturday we have a rainy, disagreeable day. Start the try works at daylight. The wind blows fresh from S. with a rough sea. We saw three whales. Got our Boats ready but did not lower - the whales were off.

June 15th. Sunday we have light airs from the South with thick fog, rain, and a little pleasant weather. At 10 A.M. saw three whales 1½ miles to windward of the ship. We lowered and did not get fast. Then suddenly the fog came in thick and we found the ship with difficulty. Our bell is a first rate one and we heard it chime. Saw two whales. The Larboard Boat got one. Observations not accurate.

June 16th. Monday we have thick fog with light winds from the North. We stow down oil in the forepeak. We finish boiling our first whale this day. It is Cow and will make 140 barrels. Observations uncertain. Saw 4 or 5 whales.

June 18th. Wednesday cloudy with fog thick at times. At 9 saw a sail. At 3 P.M. saw 4 or 5 whales. Lowered away. The waist Boat struck one. One iron broke off and he kicked the other out and in trying to get fast again he stove the bottom of the boat and broke the steering oar, then cleared out. Soon after the Larboard Boat struck one. Him we got about half past 5 P.M. We spoke the COLUMBIA of New London with 1600 barrels. Mr. Burroughs, her third mate, got his leg broke by a whale 2

MATTAPOISETT WOMAN'S CLUB TO OPEN 1956-57 SEASON WITH SPEAKER ON FASHION

The first meeting of the 1956-1957 season of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club will be held this Thursday afternoon, September 27th, in the vestry of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church at 2:30 P.M. Mrs. William V. Knapton, program chairman, has arranged for a fashion speaker, Kathleen Cannell, whose subject will be "Fashions From Paris to Main Street". Miss Cannell has been Paris Fashion Editor for the Boston Herald-Traveler, and has also written for the New Yorker and many other fashion magazines.

Mrs. Howard H. Smith will conduct the business meeting. A tea and social hour will follow the entertainment.

SPECIAL TOWN MEETING CALLED IN ROCHESTER

Rochester voters are being urged to attend a special Town Meeting October 1st at 8 P.M. At that time an article to see if the town will establish a regional school district with the towns of Berkley, Freetown and Lakeville will be voted on.

The Regional School Planning Committee who recommend this plan estimate an increase of $10.50 in the tax rate for the capital cost. Approximately $302.77 per pupil would be needed to operate the six-year junior-senior high school.

Brochures on the plan were put in the hands of voters two weeks ago and an open meeting was held in Rochester September 17th with meetings planned in the other three towns before the voting date.

Suggested site for the school is located in Lakeville where approximately 35 acres have

CHEST X-RAYS TO BE HELD IN MATTAPOISETT

Mr. Rodney Perkins, Board of Health member, urges all persons employed in the handling of food or drink to be sure to get chest X-rays during the X-ray survey of October 8, 1956. He points out that in terms of occupational groups, foodhandlers fall into one of the groups having high TB rates and for that reason, their need to check their chests with regular X-rays is greater than that of the general population.

X-rays will be available at a mobile X-ray van which will be parked at the Mattapoisett Grange Hall from 2:30 to 5:30 and 6:30 to 8:00. The survey is being conducted by the Plymouth County Health Association of 106 Main Street, Brockton, in cooperation with the Plymouth County Hospital of South Hanson. It is being sponsored locally by the Board of Health and the Mattapoisett Grange Home and Community Service.

The Plymouth County Health Association has issued some "do's and don'ts" to guide you when you go to get your X-ray.

DO.....Plan to get your X-ray between 2:30 to 5:30 or 6:30 to 8:00.

MATTAPOISETT CENTER SCHOOL NEWS
Week of September 17-21, 1956

Beginning the week of October 1-5, milk will be 2¢ per day, or 10¢ per week for children purchasing it at the Mattapoisett Center School cafeteria. Collections for that week will be on Wednesday, September 26.

Helpers for Mrs. Martin's grade one last week were Deborah Sanders, Penny Denham, Luisann Flanders, David Helfand, Douglas Jenney and Carolyn Lewis.

Monitors for Miss Cosman's grade two are Cheryl Heath and Andrew Marcoux. These monitors are chosen to help keep the class orderly. The second graders in this division have learned about brushing their teeth, how to read "stop" signs, and are now learning to tell time.

Second graders in Mrs. Pallatroni's division are reading stories, drawing pictures, and writing about the different signs of the seasons. George White, Jacqueline Bessette, and Patricia Furnans have brought in pictures representing the fall season for the class to enjoy. Cheryl Dubreuil has gathered colored leaves to show the class another sign of the coming of fall.

An intramural touch football league has been organized this year at the Center Scool. The league is composed of five teams with several seventh, eighth, and ninth graders on each team. This system gives every boy an opportunity to play.

Field Day will be held on Tuesday, October 16, between the Sippican School in Marion and the Mattapoisett Center School. Girls and boys from the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades will compete.

In the eighth grade geography classes, pupils have been bringing in post cards and post marks from letters in an effort to see who has one from the farthest point in North America. Each card or post mark is tacked to the bulletin board and attached to the point on the map it represents by a red string and another tack. The two maps (one from each eighth grade division) make a very colorful display. So far, Judith Hardy has brought in the most distant post card for 8x, and Barbara Gast for 8Y. Judy's is from San Diego, California, and Barbara's is from San Francisco, California. We even had a card from Elvis Presly from Memphis, Tennessee, but it disappeared mysteriously last week. In division 8Y, twenty states and Canada have been represented. In 8Y, sixteen states and Mexico have been represented.

OUR VACATION IN MATTAPOISETT

This years' vacation we enjoyed the best,
Away from city crowd, relax and rest.
Wholesome air, calm ocean and blue skies,
Friendly people, handsome and smiling eyes.
Their lawns smooth, velvety green carpet,
Every child is happy with some choice of pet.
Cape Cod houses gleaming in the golden sunset,
This half describes the grand town of Mattapoisett.

Three meals a day we eat like hungry hogs,
In the night we sleep like a pair of logs
In the morning we go fishing in God's pure air,
But afternoon, nothing doing, play solitaire.
Wednesday evening a band concert plays soon,
Shining stars in the skies and a full moon.
Saturday night the week's toil is forgotten,
The whole town comes to the wharf with dresses of silk or cotton.

Square dance begins with bright faces and figure,
Young and old alike dance with pep and vigor.
The ocean also dances with waves blue and fair, keep the whales in motion. Spoke the SUPERIOR of New London with nothing this season. Heard from the MONTEZUMA of New London, 3 whales this season. We stow down oil this day. Spoke the FRIENDSHIP, Fair Haven, this day.

June 24th. Tuesday we have light airs from the North and East with thick fog at times. Saw only 2 whales. They were going faster than a boat could pull. We saw only one sail. She was cutting in a whale. We stow down oil in the fore hold. We break out between decks to stow away water. The Cooper begins to set up his pipe shooks to put water in. We are running to the Southward and Westward. We finish trying our whale. It made 175 barrels.

June 26th. Thursday the storm continues. One of the bob stays part. We pass a ship supposed to be the MONTEZUMA of New London. This completes one year from home. I hope that I am remembered this day by those that have employed the year past my most anxious thoughts.

June 27th. Friday we have moderate Gales from N. Cloudy and some fog. We saw no whale this day. The Cooper completes 7 new pipes. We fill them with water and stow them between decks. We saw a sail today

June 28th. Saturday we have fresh Gales from N.E. Cloudy and Cold with some fog. We saw only one whale this day. He was 3 miles off going fast. We saw several ships, and the water about us is as light as soundings. There is a heavy swell on, and the weather is very unpleasant indeed. We stow some oil and bone this day.

June 29th. Sunday we have fresh Gales from N.N.E. Cloudy and Cold with some fog. Spoke the COLUMBIA of New London, 1800 barrels

COVER PICTURE

This is the fireplace in the home of Mrs. Gilbert F. Hinsdale on Water Street, Mattapoisett. This sketch was done in pen and ink and water color right in the room, and I am very grateful to Mrs. Hinsdale for her hospitality. Over the mantel you will notice a sternboard from the ship, Phoenix. It is a wood carving of a phoenix rising from the flame and ashes. Mrs. Hinsdale paneled this room making use of many inside shutters that were very popular at one time. She bought them at auctions, and very cleverly converted them into the paneled walls of this charming, mellow room. At the top of the picture you will notice a wood carving telling the story of whaleships on their way to and from the whaling grounds, and was carved by Manuel Perry, and painted by the late Clifford Ashley, the famous New Bedford marine artist, who painted so many pictures of New Bedford docks and whaleships. The sternboard of a whaleship is cut in two and extended to the width of openings between the rooms to form a frame for the carved picture. Mrs. Hinsdale has a marvelous collection of harpoons and irons as well as many excellent examples of scrimshaw work which decorate her home. At the right hand corner of the picture you catch a glimpse of an old steel engraving picturing a boat in the process of harpooning a whale.

In the last minute rush of last week we left out the information about last week's cover. It was drawn from an old photograph and the man in the picture is pumping oil from one cask to another with a crude sort of a pump similar to a bilge pump. The location

October 1, 1956

The Mattapoisett Center School display case for the past two weeks has featured an exhibit of new books for the school library. There are also signs telling the days and hours that the library is open and the names of the teacher librarians, who are Miss Elizabeth Cushman, Miss M. Ruth Schofield and Mr. Eugene Kennedy. The signs were made by Miss Cushman's fifth grade.

Miss Cushman's fifth grade division enjoyed doing two science experiments in connection with their study of green plants. One experiment proved that the leaves of green plants give off moisture. The second showed that moisture travels up through the stems of plants. To prove this, the students placed several different kinds of white flowers in tumblers containing different vegetable colorings mixed with water. In a few hours the colored liquid had traveled up the plant stems and into the petals of the flowers. The experiment worked successfully with each color and each kind of flower.

Members of this same fifth grade division also have been bringing in objects of interest to show and tell about in language class. Each row was responsible for one of the five language periods. After three rows had had their turns, the class voted as to which ob-

In making the announcement, Mrs. Spagnoli strongly urged the participation of the "special groups" so-called because of their higher tuberculosis rate. The groups are men over 40, both sexes over 65, foodhandlers, industrail workers and occupants and employees of nursing and rest homes.

She pointed out that the mobile X-ray unit will be parked at the Grange Hall. X-ray hours are from 2:30 to 5:30 and 6:30 to 8:00.

The process is simple and does not involve making an appointment or undressing.

Assisting Mrs. Spagnoli are Mrs. Annie Pemberton, Mrs. John Barber, Mrs. Jennie Toolis, Mrs. Theodore Bradley and Mrs. Joseph Farwell, hostesses, and Miss Barbara Spagnoli, Miss Patricia Kelley, Mrs. Earle Wilson, Mrs. Clifton Hatton, Mr. Ralph Moore and Mrs. Grace DeCosta, typists.

FROM THE LOG OF THE WHALESHIP CHARLESTON BY DANIEL A. BALDWIN ON THE VOYAGE FROM JUNE 28, 1844 to MARCH 9, 1847.

June 29th. Sunday we have fresh gales from N.N.E. Cloudy and cold with some fog. Spoke the COLUMBIA of New London, 1800 barrels, and the MANHATTAN of Sag Harbor, 3 whales this season, 2400 bbls. last season. Saw no right whales this day. The weather is cold and disagreeable, sea rough. Capt. Kelly was onboard of us the most of the day.

June 30th. Monday we have fresh gales from Northwest. Cloudy and cold with some fog in the morning. The rest of the day unusually clear. We saw two humpbacks but no right whales. We this day repair our bobstay, and the cooper sets up 7 short casks from the shooks. We have lost the run of the whales and we are trying to get North to find them.

July 1st, 1845. Tuesday we have a little sunshine once more. The horizon is clear all day. The air is verry cold, the wind West, with fresh gales. We spoke the ship FALCON of New Bedford with three whale this season, 1300 barrels last season. We saw 9 right whales this day and frightened them away. There was only two boats allowed to go near them.

Reckoning nautical speed in knots stems from the practice of throwing a small log of wood overboard from the bow to see how long it would take to pass the stern. Knowing the ship's length enabled one to figure the length of time it took the ship to pass a given point.

PLANT BLOOMS

The night blooming Ceres, property of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel LeBaron of Water Street, Mattapoisett, bloomed Thursday night, October 4th. Many friends and neighbors stopped in to enjoy this unusual plant. At one time there were 4 or 5 of these plants in town, but over the years fewer are available, so they really become most interesting in their scarcity.

MATTAPOISETT CENTER SCHOOL NEWS
October 1-5, 1956

Helpers for Mrs. Martin's grade 1 last week were: Paul Zychowicz, Alice Valley, Timothy Sullivan, Susan Reynard, Brian Hopkins, Charles King and Faith Perkins.

The boys and girls in Mrs. Pallatroni's room have made a calendar to record the weather for the month of October. Many seeds have been planted and some have come up already. Those who have contributed to the planting of the seeds are: Doris Fearing, Joanne Pierce, Patricia Furnans, Sally Hiller, Valerie Randall, Billy Egan, Roxanne Wood, Leon Lewis, Billy Milne and Billy Harris.

There were many visitors in Miss Cosman's second grade last week. Gail Norris brought in her praying mantis, as did Stephen Figueiredo. Susan Dexter brought in a cricket. This second grade division has learned a poem which they will recite to the other second grade. This is how the poem goes:

"I saw a bug with 20 feet,
Go crawling up and down the street;
I wondered if he stubbed one toe
If he would ever really know."

convey their birthday greetings to President Eisenhower.

A series of scrolls wishing Ike a Happy Birthday are being circulated for the signatures of our local citizens. These will be forwarded directly to President and Mrs. Eisenhower.

"Ike Day" is being sponsored in the greater New Bedford area by the Republican City Committee, Women's Republican Club, Young Republican Club, 3rd Bristol District State Committee members and the Republican Town Committees. Walter Smietana is chairman of the committee.

A special effort is being made to get as many "First Voters" as possible to sign the scrolls. In accordance with the President's hopes, "Future Voters" as well as those already registered will be encouraged to sign the scrolls as part of the observance of "First Voter Week" (October 7 to 14).

In a letter from Mamie Eisenhower, the Chairman of the Ike Day Committee received a copy of her birthday cake recipe. The letter said, in part, "This is Ike's favorite cake. I am delighted that you want the recipe and are celebrating Ike's birthday with us.."

When you get a prescription filled, do you see what's really in that small bottle? Those pills or capsules, simple as they may look, often are the product of some of the best scientific minds of our time. They may represent years of effort by chemists, bacteriologists, biochemists, and other highly trained specialists. Many of the "wonder drugs" that we take for granted so quickly are miracles of research and production.

FROM THE LOG OF THE WHALESHIP CHARLESTON BY DANIEL A. BALDWIN ON THE VOYAGE FROM JUNE 28, 1844 to MARCH 9, 1847.

July 2nd, 1845 Wednesday we have fresh Gales from W. S. W. and thick fog part of the day. We saw three whales. We lowered two boats. The Larboard boat got fast and got upset and we did not get any. We saw the Draper of New Bedford with 2 whales. This day completes my 34th year, This day I was fast to two whales at once for the first time in my life.

July 3rd. Thursday we have a fog most of the day. It clears a little at times. Saw two whales. Two Boats lowered and did not get fast. They were a going. Mr. Lyons shifts his Boat this day. We had fisherman's luck for a few days. Our present method of whaling does not seem to prosper. I hope self will not bring us here another season. It is more dangerous in high places than low ones.

ANNUAL SOAP BOX DERBY

The Ship Street track was fast and dry for the annual Soap Box Derby race, sponsored by the Mattapoisett Improvement Association, held Sunday afternoon. The 20 drivers put on a determined race for the benefit of the many spectators lining the track. The racing cars of the contestants were of varied design and many were built entirely by the young racing drivers. Paul Morris received the William Whelan Memorial trophy for designing and building his racer without help. It was an ingenious vehicle made from an ironing board and chair back and seat and various other odds and ends found in the home.

Two classes of races were run. One for buggy wheels and the other for Akron wheels. The contestants competed against each other and the stop watch in two heats to determine the semi-finalists. The entire field was as follows: Buggy Wheels, Robert Townsend, Jeffrey Andrews, Earl A. Scott, Jr., Charles T. Boardman, Jeffrey Livsey, Ralph K. Price, Robert Heuberger, Dexter Morgan, Paul Bieringer, Davey Andrews, David Price, Richard Wenstrom, Paul Morris, John Burr, Wayne Olivera and Andrea Boardman, the only girl racer; the Akron Wheels, Douglas Crabbe, Ronald Scott, Clifford Eldridge and John Nobre.

Ronald Scott and John Nobre raced to a tie in the Akron Wheel finals and in the run-off Scott was the winner.

PARENT-TEACHERS CLUB MEET

The Mattapoisett Parent-Teachers Club held its first meeting of the new season at the Center School on Tuesday evening, October 9th with President William Matthews presiding. Mr. Matthews introduced the new officers and committee chairman for the year which are: Allen Sherman, first vice-president; Mr. Ralph Glidden, second vice-president; Miss Ruth Schofield, secretary; Miss Betty Cushman, treasurer Mrs. Richard Cobb, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Richard Chase, hospitality; Mrs. John Anderson, membership; Loren Mosher, ways and means; Harry Locke, program and Mrs. Horace Darrah, refreshments.

Mr. Glidden, principal, introduced the members of the school faculty, the only changes being four new teachers this year, namely, Miss Sylvia B. Cosman, 2nd grade; Mr. Eugene Kennedy, 6th grade; Mrs. Emily Perry, 7th grade and Mr. Lionel Neron, 8th grade.

Mr. Howard Pierce, chief probation officer for Plymouth County, gave a very interesting talk preceding the business meeting. He spoke of the love and understanding young folks need and the reasons for their behavoir. He spoke with a voice of experience, and all those present felt that the subject was covered very well. We are very fortunate to have heard a man speak so well on a subject that means so much to all parents.

During the business meeting it was recommended to increase the dues next year to $1.00 per member. It was voted to assess each member 50 cents this year in addition to the dues to help build up the treasury. It was felt that by doing this there would be no need of running any major fund raising pro-

GRANGE MEETS IN ROCHESTER

The Rochester Grange met on Wednesday night, October 10th. Master Thomas Gayoski opened the grange, and after a short meeting, turned the gavel over to Alton Bailey, who had been escorted to the master's station. Mr. Bailey from the Wamsutta Grange and his suite then installed the officers for the coming year. He was assisted by Etta Chase, regalia bearer; Emily Judson, marshall; Rita Green, emblem bearer; Isabelle Bolger, soloist; Victoria Gurney, pianist.

The Grange voted to send the lecturer to the conference, and they also elected Joseph Silveria to take charge of the square dances for the next two weeks beginning October 19th.

A short entertainment followed given by Mrs. Marion Hartley, who read several poems and a dance by Lucille Rogers and Dorothea Hedges.

The stage was decorated very prettily with corn stalks, pumpkins, autumn leaves and chrysanthemums by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Taylor. Refreshments of ice cream, and cookies were served by Mrs. Joseph Silveria, Mrs. James Hartley and Mrs. John Garcia.

VISITED IN MATTAPOISETT

George Espin of 9 Park Street, Hyde Park, Mass. and Frank Hart of 9 Grand Street, Fitchburg, Mass. were visitors last week at the Perce Kelly's home at Antassawomack. Their visit carries with it quite a story. These three men, when boys, were brought up to-gether in Fitchburg. Over the years they became separated and lost track of each other for 48 years and 36 years respectively. Through inquiry here and there they learned that Mr. Kelly had a sister in Dartmouth, Mass, and on writing to the sister, Mrs. Bertha Chateauneuf, they located him as living in Mattapoisett. As there is only one Mattapoisett in the world this was a simple matter, and he was contacted at the New Bedford Information Booth.

It was quite a reunion after these several years, and seems almost remarkable that in one small area of 48 states it would be possible to become so separated.

LONG PLAIN BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY HAS FIRST MEETING

The Long Plain Baptist Missionary Society held its first meeting of the season on Monday night, October 8th at the parsonage. A good turnout saw the filmstrip with sound entitled "Senefore Believers Build A House of Prayer". This showed the work of the Rev. Rolf Parelius in French West Africa who recently visited the Baptist Church during his furlough.

Plans were made for a supper which will be held during the missionary conference next

HALLOWE'EN CELEBRATION COMMITTEE MEETING

A meeting of the Hallowe'en Celebration Committee was held last Thursday in the Mattapoisett Town Hall to make plans for the annual Hallowe'en celebration. Linwood Lewis was elected chairman and Mrs. Howard H. Smith was elected secretary. It was decided to contact all the organizations in town again that were not represented at this meeting. Those present were Mr. Lewis for the Lions Club; Mrs. Smith, Woman's Club and the Tinkhamtown Helping Hand Society; Mrs. Helen Silsby, Republican Woman's Club; Mr. Fred Silsby, Square Riggers; Mrs. Ross Hopkins, Women's Community Guild; John M. Souza, Jr., Parent-Teachers Club and the Couples Club and Claude Davis, Machacam Club.

To make a success of this celebration it requires not only financial help but the cooperation of all organizations in the town.

Another meeting is planned for this Thursday evening, October 18th, at 8 P.M. at the Town Hall, and it is hoped that every organization has a representative.

FROM THE LOG OF THE WHALESHIP CHARLESTON BY DANIEL A. BALDWIN ON THE VOYAGE FROM JUNE 28, 1844 to MARCH 9, 1847.

July 13th. Sunday we have moderate gales from N. and N.N.W. Start the try works again. Our whale boils badly. We saw humpbacks and sulphur bottoms but no right whale. There is thick fog at intervals all day. At 6 at night there is three ships in sight. This night we spoke the AMETHYST of New Bedford, 1400 barrels, 10 whales this season. Spoke the SABINA, Sag Harbor, 1000 barrels, 6 whales this season.

July 14th. Monday we have fresh gales from E. to N.E. with fog at times. Saw several sail, humpbacks and sulphur bottoms and two right whale that we lowered for. They were a going fast. The carpenter today placed the gear on the back of the rudder, to steer by in case the head should come off.

July 15th. Tuesday we have strong gales from N.N.E. Saw 7 whales this day. They were all going fast to the North and west except one. Him we struck, he brought to, the iron broke, and we lost him. This day we spoke the TIMOR of Sag Harbor with 1000 barrels, and India of New London, 1700 barrels. Capt. Miller came onboard of us awhile and Mr. Lyons went onboard of him. We finish trying out our last whale and stow down the oil. We this day dance down our main hatch.

July 16th. Wednesday begins with a Gale from N.N.E. We make no sail this day. At 8 we spoke the Prussian bark BOUSSIA of Stettin, 13 months out with 700 barrels. There was at the time 7 sail of Barks and Ships in sight. One showed French colours. This afternoon the wind veers round N and the gale increases. We haul up the foresail and close reef the main topsail. The water is coloured as if soundings were close at hand. If it was clear we could see the highlands of Kamskatka (Kamchatka). Our Lat. must be about 54.

July 18th. Friday we have moderate Gales from the south. Saw no right whale except a dead one we fell in with. He seemed to have been dead 2 or 3 days. We got enough to make 50 or 60. While cutting him in we spoke the PHOENIX of New Bedford, Sperm Whaler, 31 months out with 750 barrels of sperm and 1300 right whale this season on here. She has struck 26 whales and got 4, had a boatsteerer killed by a whale, and her boats knocked well to pieces. They think right whale is ugly customers and cannot do much with them.

July 19th. Saturday we have light airs from the North and East. Saw several Sulphur bottoms and Humpbacks. We this day make the Coast of Kamskatka (Kamchatka). It seems to be a mass of high hills mostly covered with snow. Near sunset I saw the top of a mountain inland that seemed 2 or 3 miles high. The part of the coast now in sight seems barren and dreary indeed. As hard faced as it appears I look upon it with agreeable sensations.

Land the most barren seems fair to the

That is wearied with gazing on water

July 20th. Sunday we have pleasant Gales from S.E. A little sun once more and the snow capp'd mountains of Kamskatka still in sight. We spoke the ship WAVERLY of New Bedford, Sperm Whaler, 2 years and 10 months out. Reports little or nothing this season. We have seen no right whales for a week and began to talk about two seasons. Just at 4 P.M. saw a right whale. Lowered two boats and before sunset we saw 5 that appeared suddenly about us. Our boat got fast and the irons came out. We came onboard, took in sail, cheered by the sight of whale. Fog came in thick at sunset.

July 21st. Monday it is thick, cloudy. The wind veers from S.E. to N.E. Moderate gales. We stow down our bone and oil this day. Saw no right whales. There was several finbacks and sulphur bottoms about us. The sulphur bottoms turned flukes like right whale. There is now 6 ships in sight.

July 23rd. Wednesday we have moderate Gales from N.N.E. with fog and rain till 2 P.M. We make sail at 2. Saw a right whale. Lowered but did not get fast. We saw a plenty of Humpbacks and 6 sail of vessels. The clouds around the horizon look black and threatening. The barometer is down to a storm.

July 24th. Thursday begins with moderate gales from W.S.E. At 2 P.M. fog closes in with strong gales. We saw a ship's boats fast to a whale. We supposed the ship to be the WISCASSET of Sag Harbor. They soon got loose from him. This day we send down the fore and mizzen top gallant masts and yards in anticipation of heavy weather. We saw 7 sail today.

We take in sail at 6 with the wind blowing strong from the south and thick fog. Soon after we saw a ship to leeward. We ran down. She proved to be the COLUMBIA of New London.

MATTAPOISETT CENTER SCHOOL NEWS
October 22, 1956

The second grade writes its own news:
"We Made Owls" - Philip Ledoux
"They are made of Newspapers" - Ricky Wilber
"They are stuffed" - David Bowman
"Then we Painted them Black" - Terry Sylvia and Patty Liberty
"Hallowe'en is Coming" - Stephen Figueiredo
"The Pumpkins are up" - Edward Days
"The Room is Decorated" - The whole class
"We have new Books from the Library" - Bruce Daniels and Sharon Rusinoski

The above news is by Miss Cosman's second grade.

Mrs. Ford's fourth grade is studying about the seasons in science. Susan Sherman made a chart for the month of October. The children bring in a daily paper showing time of sunrise, sunset, and length of day. Richard Sharples and Susan keep a record of each day. We are becoming aware of the fact that the daylight hours vary and shorten in the autumn.

Shirley Liberty brought in a large American Flag. Robert Silsby demonstrated the correct way to fold the flag for storing. Russell, Carol Johnson, Ronald Knight and George Monteiro gave rules and regulations for displaying our flag. Betsy Joslin, David Price,

The students will take sides and defend policies of the two major political parties. The groups are as follows:

Farm Policy: Paul Morris, chairman; Penelope Corey, secretary, Michael McAdams and Penelope Field. School Issue: Fred Lambert, chairman; Brenda Perry, secretary, Kathleen Sylvia and Deborah Nash. Civil Rights Issue: Janice Brown, chairman; Richard Gast, secretary, Martin Bauer and Stephen Cobb. Draft and H-Bomb Policy: James Sylvia, chairman; Richard Gast, secretary, Martin Bauer, Stephen Cobb and Walter Daniels. Foreign Policy: Joseph Costa, chairman; Susan Luiz, secretary, David Smith, Catherine Nunes, Robert Joslin, Judith Dexter. Labor Policy: Joseph Washburn, chairman; Linda Akin, secretary, Susan Wordell and Raymond Barboza.

An election in grade six last week was conducted by the class for all national, county and state offices. All students acted as counters, with groups of students counting ballots for the various offices.

This early election was held by the students to see if the reports brought in by the committees will change the opinions of the stu-

PRACTICAL ARTS CLASSES TO START IN ROCHESTER

Practical arts evening classes will start at the Rochester Consolidated School this week.

There will be a decorated ware class for the group which met two years ago, but could not continue for lack of an instructor. The first class will start next Thursday, 7 to 10 P.M., for 20 sessions and the instructor will be Miss Ruth Atkinson of New Bedford.

There will be two classes for cake decorating to meet the request for this service. The first class will start next Thursday, 7 to 10 P.M., and run for five sessions. The class will be repeated a third time, if necessary. Mrs. Robert Jarvis of Buzzards Bay will be the instructor.

Classes in upholstery and chair caning were suggested but cannot be held as there is not sufficient unused space in the school building.

Classes to be organized must meet minimum requirements of the State Department of Education regarding enrollment.

Anyone wishing additional information may contact any of the following members of the Advisory Committee: Mrs. Greenwood Hartley, Mrs. Clifford J. Hedges, Mrs. Jospeh A. Chamberlain and Mrs. Allen P. Winsor, Jr.
